POPE LEO IN SOUTH AMERICA

Dear friends in Christ,

For the past week, Pope Leo has been on an Apostolic journey to Uruguay, Argentina, and Peru, to strengthen and encourage the faith of the people there. While he was speaking directly to their circumstances, much of what he had to say can lift us up as well. This week, I would like to highlight his homily at the Shrine of Our Lady of Lujan in Argentina. Here is an excerpt:

….On this occasion I would like to propose to you a journey that is the same as the one we experience in the celebration of every Eucharist. It consists of four steps: reconciliation, enlightenment through the word of God, communion, and being sent forth on mission. Mary, standing at the foot of the Cross, unites herself to the Eucharistic Sacrifice and accompanies us on this journey.

Many of our brothers and sisters — or even we ourselves and our families — may currently be living through moments of Calvary, suffering from illness, poverty, unemployment, discrimination or family breakdown, among other problems. In those dark moments, we understand Mary's experience at the foot of the Cross, with her mother's heart torn with grief. In that most terrible moment of her life, Mary received a new mission from her Son, embracing all humanity in her mother's heart. We are likewise called to receive God's grace and to undergo processes of forgiveness and reconciliation that renew peace, hope and charity within us. Let us be sincere, acknowledge our faults and ask the Lord for forgiveness; forgiveness for that beggar, for that tear I caused to fall; forgiveness for those eyes that, when they met mine, I refused to look at (cf. Zamba del perdón). We also need to reconcile ourselves with our past and present, in order to build a new future where love has the final word.

Let us also recall the experience of the disciples on the road to Emmaus. They were walking along with sad faces, and were discouraged and weighed down by the harsh reality of the Lord's death. At that moment, the risen Jesus appeared and explained the Scriptures to them. When they shared a meal together, they recognized his presence, which had set their hearts on fire (cf. Lk 24:13-35). Dear brothers and sisters, that is often our experience too, for we also can feel tired, disappointed or disoriented. We need a compass, a guide, and indeed we already have it in Sacred Scripture! Let us allow ourselves to be enlightened by it, for the word of God is a lamp for our steps and a light to our path (cf. Ps 119:105).

As a third step, after reconciliation and enlightenment through the word, we are called to communion. Christ himself invites us to his table, and at that table we are all welcome (cf. Mt 22:9-10). There is a place for everyone, especially for those who are most in need: the poor and the hungry, migrants, the sick and prisoners, with whom the Lord identifies (cf. Mt 25:35-40). Indeed, "the Eucharist, which is the sacrament of unity, nurtures our belonging to the Body of Christ and teaches us how to share. The diverse sensibilities present in the Church and the strong convictions that animate each person are a source of richness if they remain anchored in the certainty that unity is a gift received and a responsibility to be fulfilled" (Magnifica Humanitas, 88). Communion with Christ does not cause us to withdraw into our personal affairs, nor does it lead us to take advantage of others' needs or allow us to shirk our responsibilities. Rather it impels us to be an active part of a community, to share the gifts we have received freely, and to offer what little we have for the good of many.

We are invited to demonstrate charity in the manner of Christ. Mary also teaches us that way at the foot of the Cross, for there on Calvary, both she and her Son loved to the end (cf. Jn 13:1). Loving like Christ is not a matter of doing great things, but of remaining faithful at the Lord's side, just as his mother did, both in times of suffering and in times of joy, glory and light. It is a matter of looking at life through heavenly eyes and painting each of our days with the color of hope. We know that there are many difficulties, but the Lord also inspires heroic acts of charity in our people. These include the father who rises early every day to bring bread home, the mother who stays by her sick child's side during long nights in the hospital and the good friend who shares his time with those in need.

Dear brothers and sisters, the final step is the sending forth on mission, just as we are encouraged at the end of Holy Mass. Go and proclaim (cf. Mk 16:15), because "we cannot keep from speaking about what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:20). Go and evangelize; proclaim the joy of the Gospel through words and good deeds…. rise up and walk! As Saint Augustine tells us: "Love and do whatever you please: if you are silent, be silent out of love; if you cry out, do so out of love; if you correct, correct out of love; if you forgive, forgive out of love. May the root of charity dwell within you; from that root, nothing but good can spring forth" (cf. Saint Augustine, Homily on the First Letter of Saint John to the Parthians, 7:8). POPE LEO

BEWARE OF SCAMS

EMAIL & PHISHING SCAMS ON THE RISE

SCAM ALERT

Scam emails and texts impersonating Fr. Johnson, local clergy, and parish staff are on the rise again. Please remember that our clergy and parish staff will never individually solicit gifts or donations via email or text. Unfortunately, we expect these scams to continue and potentially increase as we get closer to the holidays. Please stay vigilant, and always verify suspicious requests directly with the person through a trusted, separate means of communication before responding.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

PRV 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31; PS 128:2-5; 1 THES 5:1-6; MT 25:14-30

Today's readings remind us that one day each of us will give an account for the gifts God has entrusted to us, including the gift of time itself.

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells the familiar parable of the talents. Before leaving on a journey, a wealthy man entrusts portions of his wealth to three servants according to their abilities. Two of the servants immediately put those gifts to work and are rewarded for their faithfulness. The third, acting out of fear, buries what was entrusted to him and returns only what he had received.

The tragedy is not that the servant lacked ability. It is that he failed to recognize the privilege he had been given. His master invited him to share in his work, but fear kept him from responding. God extends that same invitation to us. He entrusts each of us with unique gifts and invites us to use them for His glory and for the good of others.

May we live each day so that, when our work is finished, we too may hear those joyful words: "Well done, my good and faithful servant... Come, share your master's joy."

Holy Innocents is Looking for Sponsors for New Catholics

We have seventeen (17!) adults who are preparing to become Catholic at Easter time (OCIA). It means we need active fully initiated Catholics (Have received, Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation) who would be willing to sponsor one of them. A sponsor gets to know, support, and encourage the inquiring adult. They also need to be present for various rites. If you might be interested, please contact Debby (Debby@holyinn.org) or Gail (gaildimock1@gmail.com). Curious? Not sure? We are happy to answer questions.

ST JUDE GIVING TREE

Our Giving trees are back once again as part of our St. Jude traditional Christmas gift to those in need. Tags will be on our trees in the Narthex beginning November 14 until December 6. Each tag will have information from one of the organizations participating and will let you know the gift they are requesting and when it needs to be returned to church. Please drop off all gift certificates at the office during office hours or place them in the mail slot on the office front door during off hours.

Below you will find each of our participating organizations with short explanations of each that we help.

Catholic Seafarer's Center (previously known as Catholic Seamen's Club): their mission is to be of service spiritually and socially to the men who sail the seas worldwide. They provide help and encouragement to those on board any ship that comes into the Port of Seattle. These men are far away from home and family for months, sometimes a year at a time.

Sacred Heart of Seattle/St. James Cathedral: requests of gift certificates for Target that are given to families in need in the Seattle area.

Echo Glen Children's Center: A juvenile treatment center for boys and girls from the ages 10-20. The organization is run by the State of Washington and these children have been placed at Echo Glen by the state. These children have come from abusive home lives.

Hopelink Food Bank: provides assistance to local families in need in the Redmond area.

St. Jude/St. Vincent De Paul: Each year parishioners from our church find it necessary to call the church office for financial assistance. Gift cards to various stores in our area help them with everyday needs of food, clothing and transportation.

King County Juvenile Detention Center: provides a variety of services for pre-adjudicated youth (children who are still going through the court process and awaiting sentencing) with the goal of helping them develop into contributing members of society. They provide much needed services to help our youth turn their lives around and make positive choices for themselves.

CCS – Pregnancy and Parenting support:
A St. Jude ministry that helps pregnant women, who have little or no assistance, with many of their needs during and after their pregnancy. They work with Catholic Community Services to help these women.

New Bethlehem Project: The New Bethlehem Project recognizes Christ's call to serve the poor by being a driving force to meet the urgent, unmet need for a year-round day center for families who are experiencing homelessness on the Eastside.

St. Jude Safe Parking: For those using St. Jude Parking as a safe place to stay. This year, we are requesting $25 gift cards from Fred Meyer, QFC, Amazon, and Safeway. Also requesting warm jackets and waffle cotton under layers for men and women.

St. Jude Adopted families: The gift cards and other items will help families from Ukraine and a single mother of four who has taken in her deceased sister's two children.

Holy Innocents Food Bank: Provides food assistance for families in need in their area.

The parishioners of St. Jude have always opened their hearts to those in need. When making your Christmas gift giving lists this year, please try to include room for our "Giving Tree" recipients.

A heartfelt Thank you and God Bless!

GIVING TREE
Nov 14 - Dec 6, 2026

Read how your gifts to the Giving Tree last year gave a youth, in Juvenile Detention at the time, hope and a brighter Christmas.

The trees in the Narthex are laden with Christmas "wishes" from people who are in the midst of vulnerable or difficult positions in their life. You could make someone's Christmas a little bit brighter by fulfilling that wish. Hear it directly from someone who was uplifted by your generosity last year:

Christmas Day 2025

Dear wonderful donors,
My name is Jaden and I want to start by saying that I appreciate for everyone of you that thought about us inmates during these hard holidays and put time and money into me, especially. I feel like I don't deserve anything because of my actions that lead me here. I was raised in a broken home, my mom was always working to put food on the table, and my dad was always on drugs, and I had to watch him get arrested many times and also found him on the floor overdosed. Thankfully, he pulled through unlike the rest of my family that died using drugs. I didn't understand why they put something that kills before me, so witnessing that lead me to fall into the same path as them. That's why still until this day I feel like I don't deserve anything special. I woke up today and instantly felt the presence of God's love through you all who put time into us, making special cards for everyone and giving hygiene, hoodies and shoes. You guys and girls made my heart feel warm and cared for. Thank you!

DITTY BAGS NEEDED FOR GIVING TREE

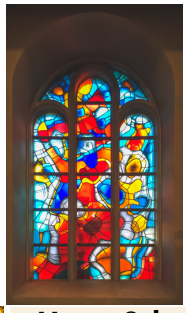

Once again, we have been asked by the Catholic Seafarers Center (formerly known as the Catholic Seamens' Club), to include ditty bags with our gifts that we donate to them with our Christmas Giving Tree Project. The ditty bags can be constructed of almost any material (pattern or plain) that when hemmed are approximately 12"x14" in size with a drawstring close. They need to be completed by December 6th. Any numbers of bags that you would be able to sew are appreciated. Please leave them at the Church office or under the Christmas Giving Trees that will be in the Narthex beginning November 14th.
If you have any questions, please contact Susan Pilawski at 425 417-6590 or Meg Lewis at 206-409-0852.
