Dear parishioners of St. Jude and St. Anthony,
Next Monday, November 9, is the Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome, the Pope's Cathedral. However, it really is a celebration of the whole universal Church. And so, it is quite appropriate that the Lateran Basilica is known as, "the mother and head of all the Churches of the city and the world." The Church is, on the one hand, the living institution of all those chosen and called by God to be conformed to him in baptism as members of his Body. At the same time, the Church is symbolized by the structures we erect to worship the Lord. This is the place where the Church becomes visible and is sustained by the living presence of the Lord. The church is called a mother, because she is meant nurture and sustain the faith of believers.

THIS FEAST AND STEWARDSHIP

It is especially appropriate that this feast comes at a time when we are asking us all to renew our commitment to stewardship; stewardship of our Church. We are all called to contribute to building up our parish community to be a place of encounter with the Lord Jesus. At the same time, we need the Church building, the parish structure, staff, infrastructure, and utilities to provide a place to worship and encounter the Lord.

Stewardship is a response to God's faithfulness. We share from the generosity of God, a portion of what we have received, trusting in God's providence. Many thanks to all who have made their stewardship pledge already. I am always amazed at your generosity. Your gift builds up our faith community in a wonderful way. Thank you!

If you have not made your pledge to stewardship this year, I invite you do so today! This annual parish stewardship campaign is when we invite everyone in the parish to commit themselves to giving back to God the "first fruits" of the blessings we have received from the Lord, to support the work of the parish. The Lord reminds us that everything we have comes from God, that we are stewards of those blessings, called to give back and use those blessings to build up the kingdom of God. How has God blessed you this year? What return shall we make to the Lord for all the good he has done?

And so, we are inviting you to reflect and pray over how God is calling you to give, and renew your commitment to stewardship.

Please return the commitment cards ASAP to the parish by placing them in the collection basket, mailing them or dropping them by the parish office or by making your pledge online at:
For St. Jude: www.stjude-redmond.org
For St. Anthony: www.stanthony-carnation.org
Please know that we need every family's help. Your gift, whatever the amount, makes a huge difference.

Remember, too, that stewardship is not only about sharing our monetary resources. The parish needs your time and talent, as well, to build up the kingdom here in Carnation, Redmond, Duvall and the surrounding areas. Your response to the Lord's call which makes this place go: keeps the heat and lights on, enables us to pass on the faith, reach out to those in need, and worship God in a fitting way.

I want to express my heartfelt thanks for the way you so generously support our parish with your time, your talent, your treasure and most of all with your love of the Lord Jesus!

PHASE 2 PARTNERS IN THE GOSPEL LISTENING SESSIONS "WHO IS GOD CALLING US TO BECOME?"

We continue our Phase 2 Listening sessions…
The next sessions are this Sunday, November 8, at Holy Innocents after the 8 AM and 10:30 AM Masses.

And next Sunday, November 15, at St. Jude after the 11 AM Mass and Wednesday, November 18, at 7 PM. Both sessions will be in the St. Jude Parish Hall.

They will include a presentation on demographics, state of our churches, and church vitality metrics, followed by a listening session on the vision and mission of our parish family. We will be seeking to answer the questions: As we come together as one parish, what is our calling? Where is the Holy Spirit leading us?

In a few words, "What is God calling Parish Family 25 to become in 5 years?"

Thanks again for the great feedback received at St. Anthony at our first listening session.

With gratitude and prayers,
Fr. Johnson

Dear parishioners of Holy Innocents,
We are now in the second phase of consultation for Partners in the Gospel toward developing a One Parish Plan for our three Churches of Holy Innocents, St. Anthony and St. Jude. Having reflected upon "Who are we?" and identifying the blessings, gifts, strengths and opportunities, we now turn to the question "Who is God calling us to become?" Also, where is the Holy Spirit leading us? This Sunday, at Holy Innocents, after each of the Masses, there will be a presentation on demographics, sacramental, financial and facilities status of our three churches, and then a listening session to contribute to the vision for parish life as we come together as one parish. Please join us downstairs in the Parish Hall after the 8 AM and 10:30 PM Masses. Grab some coffee and a sweet treat upstairs then come down and join us!

AN INVITATION TO STEWARDSHIP

Each of us is an integral member of Christ's body, the Church, and that means we are each called to contribute to building up our parish community to be a place of encounter with the Lord Jesus. At the same time, we need the Church building, the parish structure, staff, infrastructure, and utilities to provide a place to worship and encounter the Lord. And so, I am asking you prayerfully make a commitment to stewardship over this coming year.

Stewardship is a response to God's immense generosity and faithfulness. We share from the generosity of God, a portion of what we have received, trusting in God's providence with a great desire to share the blessings God has given us.

WE FACE A CHALLENGE - BUT WE CAN DO IT!

We face a great stewardship challenge at Holy Innocents, but it is a challenge we can meet if we all work together, sacrifice, and stretch as have many times before. It is a two-fold challenge.

First, we need to fund the operations and ministries of the parish (heat, light, utilities, staff, programs, worship, faith formation outreach—the day-to-day work of the parish).
With inflation, many of our costs have increased substantially just to maintain our ministries. So, we ask that you consider increasing your regular Sunday offering by 5%, or 10%, or if God has especially blessed you, by even 15%. Many took this step last year and it helped, but we are again going to need many to take one this year.

Secondly, we need pay off the debt on the church building, which enables all these ministries to have a place to happen.
We owe just around $780,000 for the church on this loan, from the other parishes of the Archdiocese. We make payments of $24,200 each month on the principal and interest. If interest rates remain stable, we will pay off the loan in 2029. We are at the tail end of our mortgage. And we will need everyone's help over the next 2.5 years to finish the job and pay off our church debt.

This year, once again, we are asking every family to renew or make a new pledge to both *Stewardship (regular Sunday giving) which funds our parish ministries and in addition, to make a pledge to Living Stones (which pays the monthly mortgage on our beautiful church). The pledge card includes a place to do both and we really do need every family's help with this!

After you have filled in an amount for stewardship (regular Sunday giving), we ask that you, in addition, fill in the second part and make, renew or increase your pledge to Living Stones to help pay down the debt on the church. To give you an idea of what our pledge need is in order to pay down the mortgage… if all of our regular givers pledge $1500 a year (or $125/month, or $30/week) we could easily make the payments. Of course, we recognize that some may not be able to pledge that amount and some can do much more.

To be successful and get our church paid off, we are all going to need to stretch and give sacrificially. It is that spirit of generosity and sacrifice that allowed this beautiful church to be built twenty-some years ago. I know we are up to the challenge, because one thing I have learned over my years at Holy Innocents, is that we have always been a "can do" parish. Please pray over how God is calling you to give and return the enclosed pledge card by mail, collection basket, or to pledge online at: www.holyinn.org
Thank you for your pledge both to Stewardship and Living Stones!

THANK YOU!

Many thanks to all who have made their stewardship pledge already. I am always amazed at your generosity. If have not made your pledge to stewardship this year, I invite you do so today.

Finally, I want to offer my heartfelt thanks to you for all you do for our parish. Your prayers and generosity make a huge difference in our parish, in Duvall, and beyond.

Blessings on your week!

Fr. James Johnson
Pastor

Stewardship of Treasure
Yearly Planning Guide

PARISH STEWARDSHIP (November & December)

Each year the parish asks each parishioner to prayerfully consider how best they can tithe of their finances to support the many ministries that are present here at St Jude. We suggest that you consider the biblical guide of tithing (giving the first 10% of one's annual income, for the support of the church and others in need. Many give 5% to the parish, and the other 5% to a charity or charities of the donor's choice.)

St Jude Parish provides this guide to help plan your yearly giving.

"What return shall I make to the Lord, for all the good He has done for me?"

A WAY TO PLAN YOUR GIVING

FIRST:
How has the Lord blessed me?
Consider your income and what percentage you would like to give.

SECOND:
How should I give back to God through my parish?
Consider what percentage you would like to give to your parish.

THIRD:
How can I bless others?
Consider what you would like to give to those in need.

These are some of the other special collections we take up throughout the year or support through your generous giving:

Annual Catholic Appeal (supports the ministries and services of the Archdiocese)
St. Vincent de Paul Society (helps individuals/families to meet basic needs)

ST VINCENT DE PAUL NEWS

We are pleased to share some wonderful news from a Youth Group Vincentian support member:

This summer, I had the blessing of attending the St. Vincent de Paul National Assembly in Salt Lake City with SVDP USA and the Youth and Young Adult Emerging Leaders group. It was an incredible opportunity to connect with Vincentians from across the country, be inspired by their stories of service, and reflect more deeply on how we are called to serve those in need. I was also humbled and grateful to receive the Emerging Leader Award, which was a wonderful reminder of the many people who encouraged and supported me along my journey of faith and service.

We congratulate Alex Moynihan on this great honor. She is pictured with John Berry, the National President and her father, Tyler Moynihan.
