PRAY THE ROSARY

One of the best prayers we can pray together as a family is the rosary. It is interactive - there is a kind of call and response when prayed together as a group. It is easy to memorize and thus easy to pray by heart. It helps us reflect in a systematic and deeper way on the mysteries of our Lord's life, death, and resurrection. It calls upon the help of the Blessed Mother who intercedes for us and gives us a model of discipleship. There was a time when every Catholic home prayed the rosary after dinner. I want to encourage us to renew that practice. However, no matter, how or when we do it, most important thing is... as a famous commercial slogan states: "just do it." The most important thing in any relationship, but especially in our relationship with God, is to simply, "show up."

The month of October gives us plenty of impetus to begin, it is the month of the Holy Rosary and October 7 is the Feast of the Holy Rosary. October 13 is one the feast days of Our Lady of Fatima; and Our Lady of Fatima exhorted the whole world most urgently to pray the Holy Rosary for peace. Today, more than ever, we need to pray not only for peace but for our society, our Church and our world - for deeper conversion of heart and an increase in faithfulness to the Lord.

RESPECT LIFE MONTH - POPE LEO ON CARE FOR THE DYING

October is Respect Life month, a time to renew ourselves in the truth that every human life is sacred and is a gift from God, from natural conception to natural death. When we think of respect for life, we often think first of praying for an end to abortion and to helping women who find themselves without options, to find support to carry their child to term--- and this is an important part of building a culture of life. At the same time, we also need to look at end-of-life issues. We need to work for a society where every elderly person feels respect and love, is cared for, and palliative care is supported in a society where physician-assisted suicide is never seen as option. Pope Leo spoke passionately in France recently on the issue of physician-assisted suicide. It is a grave moral evil and has just been legalized in France. I want to highlight what he had to say because it is important for us as Catholic to understand the moral issues involved and work to end this evil. Here is a portion of his talk to the sick and those who care for them at Lourdes:

Mary did not keep the Lord for herself, but offered him to the world, saying to each of us, "The Lord is with you." This truth is the foundation of our dignity as persons. And here, Mary looks upon each one of us as a unique person, as Saint Bernadette testified during the apparitions at the grotto. This maternal gaze reminds us once more that no one is invisible in God's eyes.

At a time when some societies are inclined to look aside or close their eyes to the dignity of human life, we need first of all "to foster, in ourselves and in others, a contemplative outlook... It is the outlook of those who see life in its deeper meaning, who grasp its utter gratuitousness, its beauty and its invitation to freedom and responsibility. It is the outlook of those who do not presume to take possession of reality but instead accept it as a gift, discovering in all things the reflection of the Creator and seeing in every person his living image (cf. Gen 1:27; Ps 8:5)...

In the dialogue of the Annunciation, as the Lord gazes upon her, Mary discovers that she is God's chosen one. Yet, at the heart of this encounter, it is each one of us who discovers that we too are personally called and profoundly destined for the love of God, who is the source of life. The human person is "worthy" simply by virtue of existing and of being destined for eternity. Our dignity cannot be measured or debated. I know that for some of you, because of particular illnesses and, at times, terrible pain, your horizon may appear dark, uncertain and without hope. But no human law should ever make you lose the certainty of your dignity. On the contrary, it is precisely in the name of this inalienable dignity of the human person that we must reject the temptation to cause death under the guise of false compassion. It is impossible to regard causing death as something normal. What is legal is not necessarily moral.

Here in Lourdes, the city of the sick and of hope, I appeal to the entire healthcare community to remember the profound meaning of your vocation, which is to care for a suffering person, not to eliminate that person. Yes, dear friends, be passionate servants of life. No one ever has the right "on the basis of laboratory algorithms, to decide the life of a given embryo or elderly person! Medicine must never become the servant of programmed death!" In this regard, I urge you resolutely to develop structures for palliative care and research. At the same time, I urge you to accompany the sick with the tenderness that we see here in Lourdes, where doctors, nurses, stretcher-bearers, chaplains, pastoral teams serving the sick, and so many others live out their vocation in the service of the dignity of the human person, so that the world may have life. In caring for bodies, you also bind up wounded souls. To you, dear members of the hospitality groups, and to the healthcare workers who devote yourselves to serving your brothers and sisters, I express my deepest gratitude.

Dear brothers and sisters who are sick, I want to tell you that you are not a burden. You are the beating heart of our humanity and a precious treasure for the Church. I carry in my prayers the trials you are going through... I entrust all of you to the maternal love of the Mother of the Lord, asking her to obtain for you the consolations of her Son Jesus. May God bless and protect you... POPE LEO
May the Blessed Mother help us to respect and promote the wonderful gift of life we have received from God.
Blessings on your week!
Fr Johnson

PARTNERS IN THE GOSPEL: WHO ARE WE?

A thank-you, and a first look at what you told us

Who are we as a parish family? That was the question at the heart of this first phase of consultation. The goal was to build a shared understanding and appreciation of the history, the people, the gifts, and the ministries at the center of each of our parishes, and to explore the opportunities and challenges we face today.

Thank you to the nearly 200 of you who completed the survey and the dozens who joined our listening sessions. This is a summary of what we heard.

What we treasure most

Your answers were remarkably united. Again and again, you named:

1. Community and belonging: a welcoming, “like family” parish (named by nearly 4 of every 5 of you)
2. The Mass and sacraments: reverent, prayerful worship
3. Service to others: our food pantries, St. Vincent de Paul, the Giving Tree
4. Music and our choirs
5. Our young families and children

Each community’s gifts shine, too

- St. Jude: a welcoming, diverse parish, rich in ministries, with beloved priests and reverent worship.
- Holy Innocents: a “can-do,” service-rooted family known for its pantry and its beautiful valley grounds.
- St. Anthony: an intimate, historic parish (100+ years) where the bilingual Mass and close-knit care are treasured.

What you’re asking for

You were honest about our challenges, and hopeful about our future. Most of all, you asked us to welcome and invest in the next generation, our youth and young families. You asked us to keep faith formation and the sacraments close to home, to be open and transparent as our finances and plans come together, and, as we unite, to protect what makes each parish special.

Where we are, and what’s next

This is just the beginning of our journey together, unfolding in three phases:

Phase 1, “Who are we?” (now):

The survey and listening-session input summarized here.

Phase 2, “Who does God want us to become?” (late October, November):

Through more surveys, listening sessions, prayer, and discernment, we’ll ask where the Holy Spirit is guiding us. This input will help the Parish Family Advisory Council draft a One Parish Plan for how our three churches will work together as one family in the Snoqualmie Valley and Redmond.

Phase 3, Feedback on the draft (Spring):

We’ll seek your feedback on the draft plan before submitting it to the Archdiocese next Fall.

Please stay tuned, and above all, please pray that the Holy Spirit guides our parish family throughout this journey.

Thank you for your honesty, your faith, and your love for this community. Please keep this journey, and one another, in your prayers.

ONE IN CHRIST,
United in Mission

100 YEARS OF WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Next weekend, we celebrate World Mission Sunday which happens each year on the second-to-last Sunday of October as a day of prayer, solidarity, and support for the Church's mission throughout the world. This year marks the 100th anniversary, established by Pope Pius XI in 1926. The annual collection, entrusted to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, supports the Church in more than 1,300 mission territories, especially young and growing communities facing poverty, isolation, or persecution. Through our prayers and generosity, we share in Christ's call to "make disciples of all nations," participating in the Church's universal mission even when we cannot go to the missions ourselves. Thank you for your generosity!

ST. MARGARET MARY ALACOQUE

OCT 16 FEAST DAY

St. Margaret Mary Alacoque was a French nun who had visions of Jesus and his Sacred Heart. She devoted her life to promoting Eucharistic adoration and the Feast of the Sacred Heart. At Holy Innocents last year, a first-class relic of St. Margaret Mary was installed for public veneration near the reconciliation room. Be sure to visit and ask her intercession: pray that we may grow ever more in love with the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

IS 25:6-10A; PS 23:1-6; PHIL 4:12-14, 19-20; MT 22:1-14 OR 22:1-10

Life has a way of pulling our attention toward immediate concerns, making it easy to lose sight of what matters most — our call to live for the Kingdom of Heaven. The stewardship way of life helps us keep our priorities in order, teaching us to live each day with eternity in view.

How do we remain focused on that eternal goal? St. Paul shares the secret in today's Second Reading from Philipians. He writes, "I know how to live in humble circumstances; I know also how to live with abundance." Whether he had plenty or very little, Paul's confidence remained the same because it rested in Christ rather than in his circumstances.

His secret is simple: "I can do all things in him who strengthens me." And he reminds us why that confidence is well placed: "My God will fully supply whatever you need, in accord with his glorious riches in Christ Jesus."

Living this way is not always easy. It requires trust, humility, and perseverance. But God never asks us to rely on our own strength. He provides everything we need to follow Him faithfully. Our task is simply to place our trust in Him each day.
