October is the month when we especially call upon the help of the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is time to pray the rosary, to meditate on the Blessed Mother's example of discipleship and grow closer to her Son through her. Pope Leo gave a beautiful homily at Lourdes last Sunday on Mary's call to conversion and healing. I think it can give us much inspiration this month. Here is a substantial excerpt:

...This Sunday's readings touch on a central part of the message that the Virgin Mary entrusted to Saint Bernadette: the call to conversion, both tender and urgent. In the Gospel, Jesus looks with truth and deep sorrow upon hearts that have remained closed, "you did not repent" (Mt 21:32). Why does this wound the heart of Christ? Because God does not want his children to be lost. The prophet Ezekiel reminds us, "When a righteous man turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity, he shall die for it." However, since "he considered and turned away from all the transgressions which he had committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die" (Ez 18:26, 28). This is why the call to repentance runs through Sacred Scripture and the preaching of the Gospel down the centuries. Its gravity reminds us of the urgency and necessity of conversion. It is today, not tomorrow, that we must repent. Indeed, now is the acceptable time, now is the day of salvation (cf. 2 Cor 6:2). God wants us to live, to open our eyes and return to him. To repent is to leave the paths on which we lost our way, and to follow the way of life, opening our hearts to the sole joy that never passes away.

Jesus himself is quite direct in calling us to repentance. As Saint Luke tells us, "Unless you repent, you will all perish" (Lk 13:5). But he also extends our horizon beyond this earthly life to the horizon of eternal life. For while happiness in this world is fleeting and relative, and sadly sometimes out of reach for some, true happiness is promised to everyone in hope, and this is what we should seek above all else, in all our efforts and choices. Did not the Virgin Mary say to Saint Bernadette, "I do not promise to make you happy in this world but in the next"?....Mary comes to remind us of the greatness and richness of our calling to life, to eternal life...

In the face of current trends that seek to redefine the value of human life in illness, suffering and old age, the grotto of Massabielle stands as a place of Christian hope. Here, no one is turned away due to their frailty. Your crutches, your wheelchairs and your hidden tears are not obstacles; instead, they are the very place where you are fully respected and welcomed, and where you can experience a transforming encounter with the infinite love of God. Lourdes is blessed as a place for professing the beauty and sanctity of life, for life is welcomed here as a precious gift from God, and is called to flourish for ever in the love of the Father.

"I promise you!" Indeed, eternal life is a firm and certain promise that the Lord makes to us. He has already won it for us by his death on the cross and his resurrection, and through the grace of baptism he is bringing it to fulfilment in us each day. It is within our reach, but we must freely welcome it, take hold of it and not stand in its way. For the obstacle to grace and eternal life — the only obstacle to this love — is sin, whereby we turn in upon ourselves, refusing God and shutting ourselves up in our own darkness. Our personal responsibility therefore comes into play, and a great responsibility it is. God has made us free, since freedom is necessary for love; no one can be forced to love. We must therefore use our freedom to say yes to Christ, relying on his grace, like Mary. This is a yes that we renew until our final breath — "now and at the hour of our death" — as we say in the Hail Mary.

We hear the same urgent call to conversion in the words which Mary spoke right here, "Penance! Penance! Penance!" She repeats the word three times. And she asks Bernadette to perform certain acts of penance. Why? Are we slow to understand? Do we too easily think of ourselves without sin? Do we not practice penance enough? The Virgin asks us to do penance not only for ourselves, because we too need it, but also "for sinners," for a world that is going astray. How can our hearts not be moved by the conflicts that are spreading and destroying so many innocent lives? Yet the evil of our time comes from the human heart. God is not responsible for it. As he says to the Israelites, "Is my way not just? Is it not your ways that are not just?" (Ez 18:25). It is therefore human hearts that must change, beginning with our own.

Penance is an act of love, carried out in solidarity with the human family. It is an act of love for God, because we want to make amends for the wounds our sins have dealt to his heart. It is also an act of love for those brothers and sisters of ours who do not heed this call to conversion, and whose sins lead them towards death. This call to conversion also concerns the Church herself as she makes her earthly journey. She must have the courage to begin with herself. In order to heal the deep wounds, infidelities and painful errors that have occurred within her, we must humbly place ourselves under the Lord's purifying gaze. Recognizing our own faults is essential to our spiritual growth. As Saint Augustine wrote, "Do not be content with what you are, if you want to become what you are not yet" (Disc. 169, 15, 18).

Our Mother's reminder of our duty to pray and repent fills us with great hope, because she shows us that the way to change the course of things is by uniting ourselves to the passion of Christ....Pilgrims, brothers and sisters, you will not leave Lourdes as you arrived. You will leave as missionaries of hope. Indeed, the miracle of Lourdes is that it can awaken the joy of hope in the very midst of suffering and hardship. The Virgin Mary heals our outlook and changes our hearts, giving them peace....Sustained by the prayers of the sick and the love of our Mother, walk with confidence into the future. Do not be afraid of the storms of the world, for the holy Mother of God watches over your journey, she shelters the Church beneath her mantle of tenderness and, as the radiant Morning Star, guides your steps, so that with joy she may bring you to new birth in the very life of her Son Jesus. Amen.

POPE LEO

Blessings on your week!

OCTOBER IS THE MONTH OF THE ROSARY

October is traditionally dedicated to the Holy Rosary, a beautiful prayer that draws us more deeply into the life of Christ through the eyes of His Mother, Mary. This month, consider making the Rosary part of your daily prayer, if you don't already.

As we pray the mysteries of the Rosary, we journey with Jesus through His life, passion, death, and resurrection, asking Mary to lead us ever closer to her Son. October 7 is the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary and World Rosary Day, a wonderful opportunity for Catholics around the world to unite in this beloved prayer. Eucharistic Adoration is a particularly beautiful time to pray the Rosary, as we meditate on the mysteries of Christ in the presence of Christ Himself.

Opportunities to pray together across our Parish Family:

St. Jude

- Rosary Cenacle: Monday–Thursday after Mass; Friday before Mass, Thursday Devotion: 1:00 p.m. — Divine Mercy Chaplet & Rosary
- Eucharistic Adoration: Fridays, 9:30 a.m.–9:00 p.m.

Holy Innocents

- Eucharistic Adoration: Fridays, 6:00–8:00 p.m.

St. Anthony Mission

- Eucharistic Adoration & Rosary: Tuesdays at 6:00 p.m.

May this month be an opportunity to rediscover the Rosary as a simple and beautiful way to draw closer to Jesus through Mary.

Mary, Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, pray for us!

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

IS 5:1-7; PS 80:9, 12-16, 19-20; PHIL 4:6-9; MT 21:33-43

We have been given so many gifts and blessings by our Heavenly Father. Yet, in our fallen state it is all too easy to take them for granted. Our readings today teach us that we must live with an intentional awareness of our many blessings and use them gratefully to glorify God.

In our Gospel passage from Matthew, Jesus uses the image of a vineyard to teach the importance of using our blessings well. He tells the story of a landowner who plants a vineyard and leases it to tenants before he goes on a journey. Instead of tending the vineyard, the tenants mistreat the servants in the vineyard and even the son of the landowner, whom they kill. When the landowner realizes what the tenants have done, he puts them to death and leases his vineyard to tenants who “will give him the produce at the proper times.”

By Baptism, we have received the gift of salvation and membership in Kingdom of God — we are now “tenants” called to work in the “vineyard” and produce fruit for its owner, our Heavenly Father. Jesus makes it clear that if we squander the gift of salvation, we will lose it. It is a sobering truth.

So, let us use our intellect to think on these gifts throughout the day and resolve to use all our gifts for God's glory.
