Dear friends in Christ,

This past Thursday a remarkable event happened in St. Louis: Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen, a pioneer in using modern media for Evangelization was beatified (declared Blessed), the final step before Canonization (Sainthood). Born May 8, 1895, in El Paso, Illinois; he grew up in Peoria, Illinois; and was ordained a priest in 1919 for the Diocese of Peoria. He was a preacher, teacher and theologian, writing over 60 books. But what he was best known for was his long-running, Emmy award-winning television program "Life is Worth Living," which often drew a viewership of nearly 30 million people. Through that program, his Catholic Hour radio show on NBC Radio from 1930-1950, and his syndicated TV program in the 1960, Archbishop Sheen reached countless Catholics and non-Catholics with clear teaching and Christ's Gospel message. He would later become Bishop of Rochester, and died on December 9, 1979, in New York City. That day will be observed as his liturgical feast day, his birthday into heaven. Blessed Fulton Sheen's tomb is located in the Cathedral of Saint Mary of the Immaculate Conception in Peoria, Illinois.

One of the most moving moments of Archbishop's Sheen beatification Mass was related to the miracle attributed to him for his beatification. It involved the inexplicable healing of a newborn infant, James Fulton Engstrom, in 2010. The child was stillborn after a prolonged lack of oxygen and had no detectable heartbeat or respiration for over an hour. After prayers asking for the intercession of Archbishop Sheen, the child's heart began beating again. The child recovered fully with no lasting medical issues. The miracle was thoroughly investigated in 2011 and approved by the Vatican in 2019. It was that child, now 16 years old, who carried the relics of Archbishop Sheen presented during the beatification Mass.

Archbishop Sheen constantly preached the necessity of a personal encounter with the Lord Jesus in the Eucharist. He practiced a daily Holy Hour before the Blessed Sacrament and encouraged this great devotion. He wrote: "The purpose of the Holy Hour is to encourage deep personal encounter with Christ. The holy and glorious God is constantly inviting us to come to Him, to hold converse with Him, to ask for such things as we need and to experience what a blessing there is in fellowship with Him."

In his book on the Holy Hour, Archbishop Sheen provides a meditation based on St. Peter Julian Eymard which beautifully describes the power of Eucharistic Adoration:

But with the Eucharist! With Jesus in the midst of us...by day and by night, accessible to all, waiting for everyone in his ever-open house, admitting the lowly, calling them with marked predilection-ah! Life is less bitter. He is the good Father in the midst of His children. It is social life with Jesus. And what society! Society that makes us better, that elevates us! And what facilities for social relations with heaven, with Jesus Christ, Himself, in person! It is, indeed, the sweet companionship of simple, loving, familiar, and intimate friendship. Ah! It was necessary!

Love desires community of goods, common possession. It wishes to share happiness and unhappiness. To give is its nature, its instinct, to give all with joy, with pleasure. And so, Jesus Christ and the Most Blessed Sacrament gives with profusion, with prodigality, His merits, His graces, yes, even His glory! Oh, how eager He is to give! He never refuses.

And he gives Himself to all, and always. He covers the world with consecrated Hosts. He wishes all His children to possess Him. There still remain twelve baskets of the five loaves multiplied in the desert. All must have some! Jesus Christ would wish to envelop the world in His sacramental veil, to fertilize all nations in the waters of life that are losing themselves in the ocean of eternity, but only after having slaked the thirst, and strengthened the last of the elect. Ah! It is well for us, for all of us, O Jesus Eucharistic!

I encourage us to ask Blessed Fulton Sheen's intercession - that we grow closer to Christ and be more effective evangelizers. Pray, too, for the good bishop's canonization, that he may soon be canonized a Saint.

LISTENING SESSIONS THIS WEEKEND!

This weekend at Holy Innocents we will have Partners in the Gospel listening sessions. Please join us downstairs in the Parish Hall there, after each Mass.

At St. Jude, the second listening session will be at 3pm on Sunday afternoon in Lovett Hall. I look forward to seeing you as we reflect upon the gifts and opportunities to grow found in our parishes!

Blessings on your week!

EMAIL PHISHING SCAMS ON THE RISE

We're seeing another uptick in scam emails impersonating Fr. Johnson, other clergy, and parish staff. Please remember: Fr. Johnson, Fr. Raphael, and parish staff will only ever email from an official email address associated with the church (ending in @stjude-redmond.org or @holynn.org) and will never ask for favors, money, gift cards, or other unusual requests, especially from an unofficial account.

Please remain vigilant and take a moment to verify the sender through other means before responding to any unexpected or unusual request. When in doubt, don't reply.

HOLY INNOCENTS PANTRY IS HIRING

Holy Innocents is looking to hire a new Outreach Coordinator. This is a part-time (25 hours) position with the primary responsibility of coordinating the food pantry. More information and the full job description can be found at www.holyinn.org.

We thank Janice Asmus for her years of service and wish her the best of luck as she moves into her retirement.

Do you want to help at the food pantry, or do you have food to donate?

You can drop your donations in the food baskets at the doors of the church or drop them on Monday mornings, 9 am — 12 noon, when our pantry volunteers are here. To sign up to help, scan the QR code

Holy Innocents Food Pantry Hours:
Tuesdays 3-6:30 pm and
Wednesday, 10 am - noon.

Next weekend on Oct 3-4, we will have our annual Blessing of the Pets in honor of St. Francis of Assisi's feast day. Please see your parish's page for exact date and details.

A THANK YOU FROM ASCEND

The ASCEND Eucharistic Revival team is deeply grateful for the support of the St. Jude, Holy Innocents, and St. Anthony communities! More than 30 parishioners from your parish family registered to attend or volunteer, joining thousands of Catholics from across the Archdiocese for a day centered on the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus. A special thank-you to Fr. Johnson, Fr. Raphael, and the staff at St. Jude for welcoming and supporting our multiple ASCEND All-Hands Meetings and the beautiful Holy Hour held at St. Jude.

ASCEND
EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

ASCEND was never meant to be just one day. Its mission continues whenever we live as disciples of Christ, draw near to Him in the Eucharist, and carry His love into the world. One meaningful way to continue that mission is through Eucharistic Adoration. We encourage you to spend time often with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, taking advantage of Adoration:

St. Jude: Fridays, 9:30AM - 9:00PM, Holy Hour every first Friday

Holy Innocents: Fridays, 6:00 - 8:00PM

St. Anthony Mission: Tuesdays, 6:00PM with Rosary

Come sit with Him. Come adore Him. Come let Him love you.

To revisit the joy, prayer, and work behind ASCEND, watch ASCEND: In Him, We Rise, a recently released documentary capturing the story of this Eucharistic Revival. And be sure to watch for familiar faces and scenes from the special Holy Hour at St. Jude! You can view it on the ASCEND Youtube Channel <https://www.youtube.com/@ASCENDEucharisticRevival>

The day may be over.
The mission continues.

In Him, We Rise.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

EZ 18:25-28; PS 25:4-5, 8-10, 14; PHIL 2:1-11 OR 2:1-5; MT 21:28-32

As Christian stewards, we are called to a high and holy standard — living as Christ's disciples every day and with every person the Lord places in our path. But we can move towards this goal in "baby steps."

Jesus demonstrates this comforting truth through the parable He tells in today's Gospel from Matthew. It is the story of two sons whose father instructs them to go out and work in his vineyard that day. While the second son agrees to his father's request, he does not follow through — he fails to obey the father's will. The first son tells his father, "no." At least he is honest! And in the end, he reconsiders and obeys his father.

The first son's honest, less-than-perfect response is consoling to us Christian stewards. Haven't we all felt this way at times when God's will for us seems to be just too hard? We can be honest with God at these times.

He knows our thoughts already, after all. But when we stay engaged in a real relationship with Him, even if it's just to say, "I don't think I can, Lord," He will supply us with just the grace we need to change our minds and do what He is asking us to do.

We can even take a step backward from time to time because our Father is merciful and kind. What matters is that we keep baby-stepping along, assured of the grace we need to more closely imitate the actions and attitudes of Christ. This is the beauty of the stewardship way of life.

One Parish Plan: Who Are We?

We invite you to be part of this journey of discernment by attending our upcoming listening sessions. It is a time to reflect and discern who we are and where God is calling us to go together.

St. Jude's Listening Session #1: Thank you!

We are grateful to everyone who joined us for our listening session at St. Jude last weekend! Thank you for sharing your voice!

Join us for the Final “Who Are We” Listening Session

These are the final opportunities to participate in an open listening session for the “Who Are We” portion of the One Parish Plan. The aim of this phase of the One Parish Plan is to develop a shared understanding and appreciation of the history, the people, the gifts, and the ministries central to each parish and to explore the opportunities and challenges we face today. See you there!

Please join us September 27, Sunday:

Downstairs in the Parish Hall

As We Listen, Let Us Pray

As we continue listening to one another and discerning our future as a Parish Family, we invite you to pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit. May we remain open to God's call, attentive to one another, and rooted in our shared mission to proclaim the Gospel and make disciples.

“Father’s Five”

As we go through this process,
Father Johnson implores five actions of every parishioner:

- Deepen your relationship with God. For this process to be a success, we will all need to renew our faith life: our prayer, our practice of the sacraments, our study of the faith, our works of charity and mercy.
- Pray for the Partners in the Gospel Process, that it may bear fruit in Archdiocese, in our Churches and in our discipleship – that it will help us become better Catholics and evangelists.
- Participate in the process, take the surveys, participate in the listening session, pray over the questions asked, listen to your fellow parishioners, discern the movement of the Holy Spirit.
- Be open to the movements of the Holy Spirit and his guidance and change. Jesus tells us the way to heaven is through taking up our cross and following him, which means we have to die to self to experience the new life of the resurrection.
- Finally, pray for vocations to the priesthood and encourage them in your own families and in our churches.

A Prayer for Our Priests

Heavenly Father,

We thank you for the gift of the priesthood and for the faithful service of our priests, Fr. Johnson and Fr. Raphael.

Thank you for the care in which they bring Christ to us through the Sacraments, prayer, and preaching. Strengthen them when they are weary, guide them in their ministry, and fill their hearts with the joy and peace of your love.

Help us to support them with our prayers, our encouragement, and our gratitude.

Bless our priests today on Priesthood Sunday, and always, and help us to be a blessing to them in return.

Amen.

This Priesthood Sunday, please remember Fr. Johnson and Fr. Raphael in your prayers - and consider offering them a simple note or a kind word of thanks for all they do for our parish family.

And let us pray for vocations: we're grateful for all our priests of today, and we're praying that there will be priests to be grateful for, in tomorrows. Please continue to encourage youth and anyone you know who may be discerning the priesthood or religious life.

ST JUDE MINISTRY NEWS

St. Vincent de Paul is much more than a patron saint of thrift shops! Hearing the profound deathbed confession of a dying servant, Vincent became more convinced of the special attention that must be given to the poor. In 1625, Vincent founded the Congregation of the Mission for the purpose of caring for the poor. Originally priests only, the mission expanded to include groups of laity who provided for spiritual and material needs of the poor in each parish. Nearly 400 hundred years later, his legacy lives on including here at St. Jude with our own St. Vincent de Paul Ministry:

St. Vincent de Paul – St. Jude Parish
Assistance Provided: January to September 15, 2026

Beyond these numbers are families who face financial and emotional struggles of losing their homes or not having food to feed their family.

But there is hope. St. Vincent de Paul offers a way forward, helping people through these difficult times.

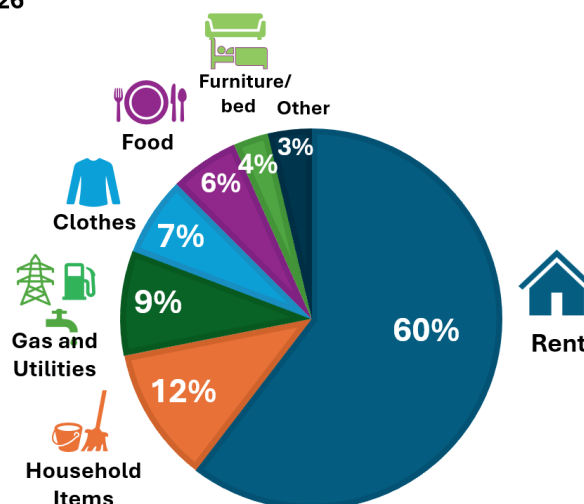

Thank you to all St. Jude parishioners, family and friends who have supported this ministry through the years.

Respect Life Month Rosary
October 1st, 6pm

CATHOLIC COMMUNITY SERVICES
OF WESTERN WASHINGTON

All are welcome to join PREPARES (Pregnancy and Parenting Support) of Western Washington as we begin Respect Life Month with a special bilingual Rosary. We will gather at the Proto-Cathedral of St. James in Vancouver to pray in both English and Spanish, and everyone is welcome. You can also pray with us via livestream on the PREPARES Facebook page. PREPARES, a program of Catholic Community Services, supports families with children from birth to age five. To learn more about the Rosary event and sign up for reminders, visit the event page at <https://preparesww.myflodesk.com/rosary2026>. Participants can also receive a digital Rosary guide when they register. To learn more about PREPARES and its mission, visit www.preparesforlife.org.
