Finances of Association

Section 6.01 Preparation of Annual Budget. Each year on or before November 15, the Executive Board shall estimate the total amount necessary to pay the operating costs of the Association for the next calendar year together with a reasonable amount considered by the Executive Board to be necessary as a reserve for contingencies and replacements. These two categories of expenses shall be itemized to reflect Common Expenses and Limited Expenses. The Executive Board shall notify each Unit Owner in writing on or before November 15 of each year, of the amount of each such estimate. These estimated costs shall then be assessed to the Unit Owners as Common Expenses or Limited Expenses, as the case may be, according to each Unit Owner's Percentage Interest. Such assessments shall be deemed to be assessed on a monthly basis and payable on the first day of each month of such year. On or before the date of each Annual Meeting, the Association shall supply to all Unit Owners an itemized accounting of the Common Expenses and Limited Expenses for the preceding calendar year actually incurred and paid together with a tabulation of the amounts collected pursuant to the estimates provided, and showing the net amount over or short of the actual expenditures plus reserves. Any amount accumulated in excess of the amount required for actual expenses and reserves shall be credited according to each Unit Owner's Percentage Interest to the next monthly installments due from Unit Owners under the current year's estimate, until exhausted, and any shortage shall be added according to each Unit Owner's Percentage Interest to the installments due in the succeeding six (6) months after rendering the accounting.

Section 6.02 Special Assessments, Extraordinary Expenditures. If the Executive Board shall determine that any structural components of any Common Element, Limited Common Element or Unit or that any part of any Common Element requires immediate maintenance, repair, renovation or replacement in order to protect the health and safety of the Unit Owners and occupants or to preserve the essential nature and character of the Condominium or to otherwise comply with the terms, covenants and conditions of the Ground Lease, and the expense of such maintenance, repair, renovation or replacement was not calculated into the budget for the current fiscal year, such expense shall be charged against the reserve for contingencies and replacements. If the reserve for contingencies and replacements is inadequate to meet such expense, the Executive Board shall levy a special assessment against all of the Units. The Executive Board shall serve written notice of such special assessment upon the Unit Owners by certified or registered mail. Such notice shall state the amount of the special assessment and the reasons therefor. The special assessment shall be payable in three (3) monthly installments beginning with the first day of the month succeeding the date on which notice of the special assessment was sent.

Section 6.03 Budget for First Year. Upon the initial election of the Executive Board Directors by Unit Owners other than the Declarant, the Executive Board shall determine the operating expenses of the Association for the period commencing 30 days after such election and ending on December 31 of the calendar year in which such election occurs. Assessments shall be levied against, and paid by, the Unit Owners during this period as provided in Section 6.01 beginning with the first day of the month succeeding the date of such initial election.

Section 6.04 Failure to Prepare Annual Budget. The failure of the Association to prepare or deliver to the Unit Owners the Annual Budget shall not constitute a waiver or release in any manner of the obligations of the Unit Owners to pay the maintenance costs and necessary reserves, as herein provided, whenever the same shall be determined, and in the absence of any Annual Budget, the Unit Owners shall continue to pay the monthly fee.

Section 6.05 Books and Records of Association. The Association shall keep full and correct books of account and the same shall be open for inspection by any Unit Owner or its representative duly authorized in writing, at such reasonable time or times during normal business hours as may be requested by such Unit Owner. Upon 10 days' notice to the Executive Board and payment of a reasonable fee, and Unit Owner shall be furnished a statement of its account setting forth the amount of any unpaid assessments or other charges due and owing from such Unit Owner.

Section 6.06 Annual Audit. The books of the Association shall be audited once a year by the Executive Board and such audit shall be completed prior to each annual meeting. If requested by two (2) members of the Executive Board or the Members entitled to exercise a majority of the voting power of the Association, such audit shall be made by a Certified Public Accountant.

Section 6.07 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Association shall end on December 31 of each year, or on such other date as shall be fixed from time to time by the Executive Board.

ARTICLE VII

The Association may impose reasonable fines against any Unit Owner by reason of a default by such Unit Owner in the performance or observation of the terms, covenants and conditions on the part of such Unit Owner to be performed or observed contained in the declaration, the Rules and Regulations, or these Bylaws, provided that prior to the imposition of such fine, such Unit Owner shall have received notice of such default and shall have been granted an opportunity to be heard.

The Association may bring an action at law or in equity against the Unit Owner personally obligated to pay any assessment or fine, may foreclose its lien against such Unit or seek and obtain any other remedy provided at law or in equity. All legal costs and reasonable attorney's fees shall also be a continuing lien upon the Unit against which assessments were levied. The Association's lien shall be subject and subordinate to the lien of any Permitted Mortgage.

Section 7.05 Association's Right to Enter Units. The Executive Board Directors, the Officers of the Association and their agents, may enter any Unit or Limited Common Element when such entry shall be necessary in conjunction with any maintenance, repair or replacement for which the Association shall be responsible. Such entry shall occur on weekdays between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., and with as little inconvenience to the Unit Owners as is practicable and any damage caused thereby shall be repaired by the Association. In the event of any emergency originating in or threatening the structure of any Unit or Limited Common Element or the health or safety of any of the occupants of the Condominium, the Association may enter such Unit or Limited Common Element at any time, whether such Unit Owner shall be present or not, and take such action as shall be necessary to remedy the emergency.

Section 7.06 Purchase, Sale, Mortgage and Lease of Real Property. The Executive Board, by affirmative vote of the Directors then in office, shall cause the Association to acquire an interest in any real property, consistent with the provisions of the Declaration and these Bylaws, and to let, sublet, mortgage, pledge or in any way encumber the same, as shall be deemed beneficial to the operation of the Condominium.

Section 9.04 Scope of Indemnification. Indemnification under this Article shall not be made by the Association in any case where a court determines that indemnification for the alleged act or failure to act giving rise to the claim for indemnification is expressly prohibited by the Nonprofit Association Law of 1988, 15 Pa. Section 9.05 Insurance. The Association may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of each Director and Officer against any liability asserted against or incurred by such Director or officer in any capacity, or arising out of such Director's or Officer's status as such, whether or not the Association would have the power to indemnify such Director or Officer against such liability under the provisions of this Article.

Section 9.06 Miscellaneous. Each Director and Officer of this Association shall be deemed to act in such capacity in reliance upon such rights of indemnification and advancement of expenses as are provided in this Article. The rights of indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which any person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any agreement, vote of disinterested Directors, statute or otherwise, both as to action in such person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office or position, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be an authorized representative of the Association and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person. Indemnification and advancement of expenses under this Article shall be provided whether or not the indemnified liability arises or arose from any threatened, pending or completed action by or in the right of the Association. Any repeal or modification of this Article by the Executive Board of the Association shall not adversely affect any right or protection existing at the time of such repeal or modification to which any person may be entitled under this Article.

The rights conferred by this Article shall continue as to any person who has ceased to be a Director of the Association and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person.

ARTICLE XI
Amendments to Bylaws

Section I 1.01 By the Executive Board. The authority to adopt, amend and repeal Bylaws of the Association is vested in the Executive Board, subject to the power of the Members to change such action. The foregoing authority of the Executive Board may be exercised whether or not the Members have previously adopted, amended or repealed the same or any other Bylaw, but, subsequent to the initial organization meeting of the Executive Board, such authority may not be exercised with respect to any subject that is committed expressly to the Members by the provisions of the Nonprofit Association Law of 1988 of any successor statute.
