Children's Sermon		Bethany Thompson
Scripture Reading	Psalm 40	Amelia Wisner
I waited patiently for the Lord; he inclined to me and heard my cry. Not my will, but yours be done. He drew me up from the desolate pit, out of the miry bog, and set my feet upon a rock, making my steps secure. Not my will, but yours be done. Happy are those who make the Lord their trust, who do not turn to the proud, to those who go astray after false gods. Not my will, but yours be done. Sacrifice and offering you do not desire, but you have given me an open ear. Not my will, but yours be done. Do not, O Lord, withhold your mercy from me; let your steadfast love and your faithfulness keep me safe forever. Not my will, but yours be done. As for me, I am poor and needy, but the Lord takes thought for me. You are my help and my deliverer; do not delay, O my God. Not my will, but yours be done. He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God. Many will see and fear, and put their trust in the Lord. Not my will, but yours be done. Amen.

*Hymn 509	Trust and Obey TRUST AND OBEY	Congregation

Offertory Prayer

Laura Stallins

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be Your name;
Your kingdom come; Your will be done; on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil.
For Yours is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever.
Amen.
