God Made a Farmer

And on the 8th day, God looked down on his planned paradise and said, "I need a caretaker." So God made a Farmer.

God said, "I need somebody willing to get up before dawn, milk cows, work all day in the fields, milk cows again, eat supper, then go to town and stay past midnight at a meeting of the school board." So God made a Farmer.

"I need somebody with arms strong enough to rustle a calf and yet gentle enough to deliver his own grandchild; somebody to call hogs, tame cantankerous machinery, come home hungry, have to wait lunch until his wife's done feeding visiting ladies, then tell the ladies to be sure and come back real soon -- and mean it." So God made a Farmer.

God said, "I need somebody willing to sit up all night with a newborn colt, and watch it die, then dry his eyes and say, 'Maybe next year.' I need somebody who can shape an axle handle from a persimmon sprout, shoe a horse with a hunk of ear tire, who can make harness out of haywire, feed sacks and shoe straps, who, planting time and harvest season, will finish his forty-hour week by Tuesday noon, and then pain in from tractor back," put in another seventy-two hours." So God made a Farmer.

God had to have somebody willing to ride the ruts at double speed to get the hay in ahead of the rain clouds, and yet stop in mid-field and race to help when he sees the first smoke from a neighbor's place. So God made a Farmer.

God said, "I need somebody strong enough to clear trees and heave bails, yet gentle enough to tame lambs and wean pigs and tend the pink-combed pullets, who will stop his mower for an hour to splint the broken leg of a meadow lark."

It had to be somebody who'd plow deep and straight and not cut corners; somebody to seed, weed, feed, breed and rake and disc and plow and plant and tie the fleece and strain the milk and replenish the self-feeder and finish a hard week's work with a five-mile drive to church; somebody who would bale a family together with the soft strong bonds of sharing, who would laugh, and then sigh, and then reply, with smiling eyes, when his son says that he wants to spend his life, "doing what dad does." So God made a Farmer.

In Loving Memory

Death is not
Extinguishing the light;
It is putting out the lamp
Because dawn has come.

TO THOSE I LOVE AND THOSE WHO LOVE ME

When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do,
You must not tie yourself to me with tears,
Be thankful for our many beautiful years,
I gave you love, you can only guess,
How much you gave to me in happiness,
I thank you for the love
Each of you has shown.
But now it's time I traveled alone,
So grieve awhile for me,
If grieve you must.

Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a time that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on,
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you cannot see or touch me,
I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart,
You'll hear all my love around you
Soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and say, "Welcome Home!"

Fear Death.....NOT!!!
A friend has come
To release me from
The bondage of the flesh.
