Child Safety Public Statement

October 2023

We support and respect all children, as well as our volunteers. We are committed to the safety, participation and empowerment of all children.

We have zero tolerance of child abuse, and all allegations and safety concerns will be treated very seriously and consistently with our policies and procedures.

We have legal and moral obligations to contact authorities when we are worried about a child's safety, which we follow rigorously.

SASA is committed to preventing child abuse and identifying risks early and removing and reducing these risks.

SASA is committed to training and educating our Committee members and volunteers on child safety.

We are committed to the cultural safety of Aboriginal children, the cultural safety of children from culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds, and to providing a safe environment for children with a disability and the LGBTQ+ community.

We have specific policies and procedures in place that support our Committee members and volunteers to achieve these commitments.
