

Welcome to the 2027 Quilt Study

“Moments of Our Lives: Commemorative Quilts”

We look forward to sharing your journey of research and discovery. The topic of this study is open to a broad range of time periods, techniques, and topics.

What are commemorative quilts? These quilts reach across the decades. They were used to share family remembrances, note momentous periods in history, and communicate views when women’s voices were often not heard.

Think of the many styles and eras (some ongoing today):

- Centennial quilts
- Abolition
- Suffrage
- Covid/AIDS
- T-Shirt quilts
- Sanitary Commission
- World Fairs
- Baltimore Album
- World Wars
- Bicentennial
- Inscribed
- And more!

The opportunities are large. Enjoy the search into this topic. We are here for questions.

Barbara Goetz and Julie Mooberry

quiltstudy27@gmail.com