

SPONSORSHIP PACKET CONFLICT RESOLUTION DAY

CONFLICT RESOLUTION DAY IS OCTOBER 16.
WE ARE CELEBRATING BY TEACHING OUR COMMUNITY HOW TO DE-ESCALATE CONFLICTS.

Some might say conflict is at an all-time high right now. True or not, the Center for Dialog & Resolution recognizes a need for people to learn how to come together to solve their disagreements. It is the foundational principle of our work.

We are celebrating Conflict Resolution Day by reaching out to our community to help people recognize their power to flip the script when disagreements escalate into conflicts. The opportunity is open to everyone - teachers, coaches, parents, clergy, HOA leaders, managers, employees, students. We invite anyone who wants to learn how to de-escalate disagreements and turn them into positive connections.

We ask you to join us in this effort by sponsoring community-centered training workshops called De-escalation: Turning Conflict Into Connection.

CDR's leaders, along with our skilled Community of Practice members, will provide two-hour training sessions, delivered three times with a goal to engage 100 participants.

As a sponsor, you will enable participants to:

- Explore how to self-regulate when feelings and emotions escalate
- Practice listening to understand the other perspective
- Examine their choice of nonviolent behaviors that can interrupt cycle of escalation and maximize connection with the other person

It is my response that decides whether a crisis
will be escalated or de-escalated, and a person
humanized or dehumanized.

DE-ESCALATION: TURNING CONFLICT INTO CONNECTION GOALS

Participants will be offered ideas on how to deescalate emotional conversations

The first step to creating connection out of conflict is knowing where to start. Many people avoid conflict. When that happens, it can fester and grow. The training will take them from a place of fear to one of empowerment.

Participants will leave the event with hope, a communication tool and CDR's contact information

Each two-hour training will empower community members to address conflict in the moment. Years of experience have told us that once people learn a new skill, they want to know more.

Your support can enable participants to receive more training, and more people in our community to learn de-escalation techniques.

The Center for Dialog & Resolution will be recognized as a resource for conflict resolution

As the only community mediation and conflict resolution center in Pierce County, it is vital that people understand what we do and how we can support them.

Your support of this training will help spread the word about our services. Your investment also will help us gain feedback to improve and develop future trainings.

CONFLICT RESOLUTION DAY

OCTOBER 16, 2025

In the three decades that the Center for Dialog & Resolution has served Pierce County, we know one thing is inevitable: conflict. We know something else is possible: resolution.

We ask you to support a day of community-focused trainings - three sessions to engage 100 people - that teach people how to de-escalate conflicts and turn them into connections.

We will recognize your support for the Center for Dialog & Resolution in these ways:
