

My Day at Newton Neuro

NEWTON NEURO
Brain & Behavioral Health

I’m going to Newton Neuro soon.

NEWTON NEURO
Brain & Behavioral Health

Their job is to figure out what is easy and hard for my brain.They do this with activities and games.

I'll walk into the main lobby.

And then I'll walk down the hallway.

I'll keep walking until I get to their office.

Once I get there, I'm going to wait by the window and someone is going to greet me.

They may tell me that I can sit down for a few minutes in the waiting room.

Everyone there is so nice! Here are a few of the faces I may see around.

Some of the games may be puzzles, and some may be word games. Some of the activities may feel a little bit like school activities, too.

Sometimes, we'll just talk!

We can take breaks for snacks, and there are always a lot of snacks to choose from!

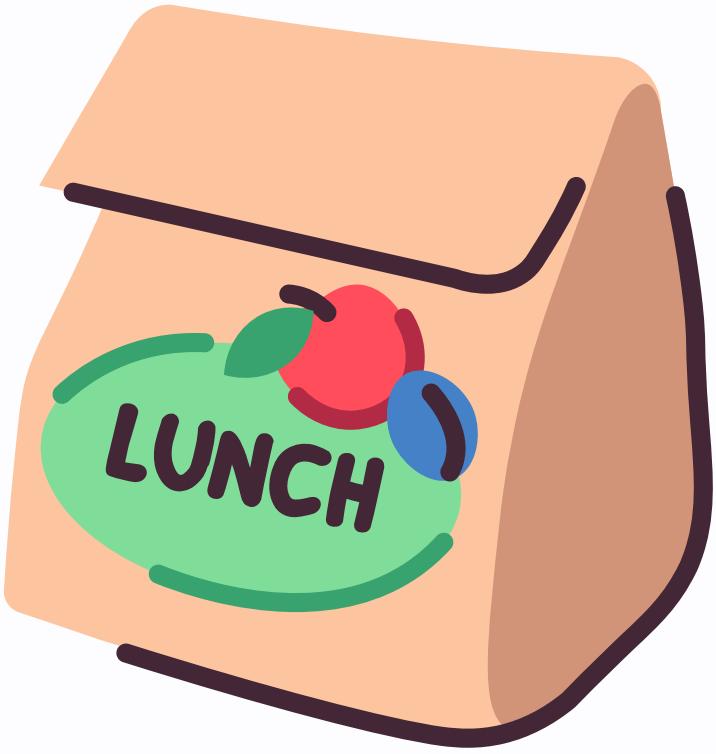

NEWTON NEURO
