MISSIONS

SCOTT BOURLAND
INDIANA

The Lord has been faithful through every season of ministry. Since moving into our new building last December, we have welcomed 158 first-time visitors. While not everyone has stayed, we praise God for the three households who have become part of our church family. Our Heritage Days outreach has also given us opportunities to build relationships, share the Gospel, and serve our community.

We are looking forward to an organizational service this spring, and everything seems to be moving in the right direction toward becoming a self-supporting church. As that day approaches, I believe the Lord is also making clear what is next for me. I will share more details when the time is right. Until then, please pray for us as we faithfully finish the work God has given us and trust Him with what comes next.
