MISSIONS

I'm thankful to see how God continues to work through our missionaries in Valencia City! Two souls were baptized, new visitors are attending worship, and our Friday night services are opening doors to share the gospel with neighbors. I'm encouraged by the growth of our family fellowship, community outreach workshops, and youth ministry. It is exciting to see how God is providing opportunities to minister to the community in unexpected ways, including neighbors asking for prayer and hearing God's Word. Praise the Lord for providing Brother Jaireh Hulagpay as a new ministry co-worker to help serve in CityYouth and CityKids. I'm also grateful for the encouragement and fellowship gained at the National Pastors' Conference and the ongoing vision to support local missionaries. Thank you for your faithful prayers and support. Please continue praying for their family, health, and ministry as they seek to reach their community with the gospel.
