MISSIONS

KUNI OBA
MISSION2BRAZIL

This month has been more challenging than I expected as I settled into my new home. After spending so much time moving, unpacking, and getting organized, I faced two unexpected floods that damaged some furniture and required additional repairs. It has been frustrating, but I'm thankful for the ways God has provided help along the way. A friend from church even spent three days helping me clean and organize, which was a tremendous blessing. I'm also grateful for the opportunity to build a relationship with the plumber who maintains my home. Please pray that God will open the door for me to share the gospel with him. Although things haven't gone as planned, I'm learning to trust God's faithfulness and recognize His provision through the people He brings into my life. Thank you for your continued prayers for me and my ministry here in Brazil!
