Annual Report

We are happy to share our annual report as our Fall 2025 newsletter. The 2024-2025 edition highlights our transition from administering the Teaching with Primary Sources--MTSU program to leading the TPS Southern Region, which includes coordinating subawards to universities and non-profits in eight states. We also feature our continued statewide partnerships with Tennessee 250; the key contributions of our graduate research assistants to publications, National Register nominations, and exhibits; our publication through the Tennessee Civil War National Heritage Area of Charting Your Own Vision: Lessons From Leiper's Fork, which was distributed to all Tennessee counties; the development of new driving tours for Red Boiling Springs and Orange Mound; and preservation projects in historically significant places in Tennessee, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, and Georgia.

We welcome your comments and questions at histpres@mtsu.edu. You can keep up with our latest activities on Facebook and Instagram.

In January, we will send out our Winter 2026 newsletter in the standard format, including our popular Formers' Corner video feature.
