Celebrating a Financial Blessing

Chantelle Sanderson has been awarded an Alliance for Excellence Scholarship, a meaningful financial blessing that will support her as she completes her associate degree at Virginia Western Community College.

This scholarship will allow her to continue pursuing her educational goals. She expressed deep gratitude for the encouragement, guidance, and generosity that made this opportunity possible, sharing that the support has renewed her motivation to succeed academically.

Chantelle is committed to honoring this gift through hard work, dedication, and perseverance in her studies. She is thankful for the belief shown in her and for the continued support of those who invest in helping students pursue higher education.

Please join us in celebrating this accomplishment and in keeping Chantelle in your prayers as she continues her academic journey.

YOUTH

Congratulations, Zion-Eternal Baskerville!

We are happy to congratulate Zion on his outstanding achievements in football! He has been named 2nd Team Tight End on The Roanoke Times 2025 All-Timesland Football Team, recognizing his hard work, dedication, and talent on the field. In addition, Zion has received his first scholarship offer for football from West Virginia State University!

Please join us in celebrating Zion and wishing him continued success both on and off the field.

Congratulations, Jase Rhodes!

We are happy to congratulate Jase on his outstanding achievements in football! He has been named 1st Team Defensive Back on The Roanoke Times 2025 All-Timesland Football Team, recognizing his hard work, dedication, and talent on the field. Today, he is not with us because he is on his way to James Madison University, where he will be continuing his football career and playing at the next level.

Please join us in congratulating Jase and wishing him much success in this exciting new chapter!
