♦ Christmas Skit. Those participating in the “Christmas Skit,” please report to Salena Morton immediately following service today.

Youth News

♦ Congratulations Zion-Eternal Baskerville! We are delighted to announce that Zion received his first scholarship offer for football from West Virginia State University! This is a wonderful achievement that reflects his dedication, hard work, and God-given talent. Please join us in praying for continued guidance and success in his athletic and academic journey.

♦ Congratulations Jase Rhodes! Jase received the award for Defensive Player of the Year for North Cross School football! At his official signing ceremony last Thursday to play football with JMU, the following summary of his accomplishments at North Cross was read:

Jase Rhodes will be taking his talents to James Madison University. Rhodes, a 2X team Captain, is already a two-time First Team All-State Defensive Back, One time First Team All-State Wide Receiver, and a multi-time All-Conference Defensive Back and Wide Receiver, ever since 9th grade and last season. Rhodes was named the team’s 2024 Defensive MVP and 2025 Defensive Player of the year. As is the case with many exceptional football players, Rhodes has also been an indoor and an outdoor track and field phenom for the Raiders over the last three years, helping North Cross win both the Boys Outdoor Track Conference and VISAA DII State Championship titles in 2023, as well as both the Boys Indoor Track Conference and VISAA DII State titles in 2025! Rhodes was awarded the team’s MVP three times, the State Male Indoor Track Athlete of the Meet in 2025 and the Conference Male Outdoor Athlete of the Meet in 2024. A superstar in the triple jump, high jump, long jump and relays, Rhodes has too many Conference titles to count, but he also has three individual Indoor Track State titles (2023 & 2024 Triple Jump, 2025 High Jump) as well as two individual Outdoor Track State titles (2023 Triple jump and 4x100) to round out his storied high school track career.

This is a wonderful achievement that reflects his dedication, hard work, and God-given talent. Please join us in praying for continued guidance and success as he begins an exciting new chapter at James Madison University.
