The Responsibilities of the School

Ethos, Attitudes and Behaviour

We welcome your child to our school

The school will endeavour to ensure that your child:

- is kept safe from harm;
- is happy and enjoys coming to school;
- develops to their full potential physically, intellectually, emotionally and spiritually;
- develops independence of thought, use of initiative and self-reliance;
- develops a sense of belonging to and sharing in a community both in school and beyond;
- learns right from wrong and develops a sense of responsibility towards others in the community and the world at large;
- is recognised and acknowledged for positive attitudes and good behaviour;
- develops a positive attitude to the multicultural society in which we live.

In addition, the school will:

- maintain a caring atmosphere;
- treat all children fairly;
- investigate fully and impartially any complaints of bullying or anti-social behaviour;
- keep you informed of any concerns we may have about your child's behaviour or attitude so that we can work together to overcome problems.

The Responsibilities of the School - Work and Progress

In teaching your child the school will:

- provide a full and balanced curriculum; including the teaching of British values of democracy, the rule of law, Individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance.
- make sure that learning is challenging and that expectations are high;
- take account of individual strengths, weaknesses and interests;
- make sure that achievements are recognised and acknowledged;
- keep a regular check on progress and keep you informed of that progress.
