

What makes Britain a diverse and multicultural country?

Our subjects	Target	Learning Objectives
 History	A study of an aspect or theme in British history that extends pupils' chronological knowledge beyond 1066 – Britain since 1948	Who are the Windrush generation?
		How is the Windrush celebrated?
 Music	To play a musical instrument with increasing accuracy. To use and understand staff and other musical notation. To develop an understanding of the history of music.	How do you play the chords of C, F, G and Am on a ukulele?
		How do you play a ukulele following tab?
 PE: Basketball and Dodgeball	To play competitive games, modified where appropriate [for example, badminton, basketball, cricket, football, hockey, netball, rounders and tennis] and apply basic principles suitable for attacking and defending.	How do you catch to get an opponent out in dodgeball?
		What skills are required to officiate and referee a dodgeball game?
		How can we increase accuracy when scoring in basketball?
		What principals, rules and tactics can be applied a basketball game?
 RE	To establish what it means to be a Muslim in Britain today.	What are the 5 pillars of Islam?
		What does it mean to be a Muslim in Britain today?
 PSHE	To understand there are different perceptions about what normal means. To empathise with people who are different. To understand how being different could affect someone's life. To be aware of my attitude towards people who are different to me. To explain some of the ways in which one person or a group can have power over another. To know how it can feel to be excluded or treated badly by being different in some way.	Can I identify and accept that everyone is different?
		How do I include others when working and playing?
		How can I help if someone is being bullied?
		What can I do when solving problems?
		How do I use kind words?
		How do I give and receive compliments?
 Computing	Select, use and combine a variety of software on a range of digital devices to design and create a range of programs, systems and content that accomplish given goals, including collecting, analysing, evaluating and presenting data and information in the context of how to publish their web page.	What makes a good website?
		How do we add hyperlinks and videos into a web page?
		How do we publish a website?