Series: The Revival We Need

Title: The Righteousness We Need (Part 2)

Passage: Matthew 5:21-48

Pastor Tom Yoon

September 7, 2025

Outline:

1. Our Struggle for Peace
2. Our Struggle for Purity
3. Our Struggle for Integrity
4. Our Struggle for Justice

Questions:

1. What stood out to you most from this week's sermon, and why?
2. Why is self-examination so important for the Christian life, and what are some dangers if we never examine our hearts? What can we do to become more self-aware?
3. Why does Jesus call us to reconcile even when we are not the ones holding anger? How can this principle transform our relationships?
4. How does remembering God's love and forgiveness help us fight against lust and pursue purity?
5. Jesus says, "Let your yes be yes and your no be no." What does this look like in our commitments today, in family, church, and work?
6. Jesus calls us to turn the other cheek and love our enemies. What makes this so difficult, and what encouragement do we find in Jesus' own example?
7. How does trusting that God will ultimately bring justice free us to respond with grace and love in the present?
8. How can we be perfect as our heavenly Father is perfect? What does Jesus mean by this? How are these commands, also promises from God?
9. Do you have any other comments or questions regarding this passage?
