Questions:

1. What stood out to you most from this week's sermon, and why?
2. What does it mean that God's righteousness not our effort is the basis for our deliverance? How does this truth bring you peace when life feels unfair?
3. Why is God's reputation tied to our protection and deliverance? How does that strengthen your confidence in prayer?
4. How do you usually respond when you feel misunderstood or abandoned? What can you learn from David's example of turning to God instead of bitterness?
5. What are some waiting seasons in your life right now? What helps you wait faithfully instead of anxiously?
6. What is something or someone you may be holding too tightly to? What would it look like to release that to God this week?
7. Why do you think it's sometimes hard to see God's goodness while you're still waiting? What helps you remember that goodness is being stored up for you even now?
