Series: Our Refuge and Strength

Title: Pray for Justice

Passage: Psalm 33:1-22

Pastor Tom Yoon

November 16, 2025

Outline:

1. We can worship with joy, because we were made to worship.
2. We can worship with joy, because of who God is.
3. We can worship with joy, because of our future hope.

Questions:

1. What stood out to you most from this week's sermon, and why?
2. Why do you think worship can sometimes feel cold, distant, or half-hearted? What helps restore joy and warmth in your worship?
3. Psalm 33 highlights musical instruments in worship. How has music helped you engage with God? Are there times when music can help refocus the heart?
4. Psalm 33 describes God as good, faithful, loving, and powerful. Which aspect of God's character encourages you most today, and why?
5. Where do you feel a sense of chaos, at home, work, or in your own heart? How does Psalm 33's picture of God's sovereignty bring peace?
6. Psalm 33:13–15 says God sees all our deeds. How does knowing that God sees your labor, your service, and your suffering encourage you?
7. Psalm 33 promises that God will deliver His people and keep them through every trial. How does this future hope help you worship with joy today?
8. Do you have any other comments or questions regarding this passage?
