

Sermon Discussion Questions

- 1. Why do we feel the need to hide our struggles and pretend everything is fine when we come to church?
- 2. What are we actually afraid of when it comes to letting people in our church family truly know us?
- 3. Why is it our first instinct to try and fix our own lives through hard work instead of asking the Holy Spirit for help?
- 4. When we look at a messy situation in our family or town, why do we tend to give up hope instead of trusting God for a miracle?
- 5. Why do we still struggle to feel close to God during lonely seasons, even though we know Jesus was abandoned on the cross for us?
- 6. If Jesus loved us when we were at our worst, why do we expect others to clean up their lives before we show them grace?
- 7. Why does fear about our own future or failures make us too exhausted or guarded to sacrifice for the people around us this week?