

Discussion Questions for “The Unstoppable Gospel: Clean”

Acts 10:1-33 (Reading: 10:1-16), Pastor Tom Olson, Weekend of October 17th & 18th, 2026

Sermon Outline

What God’s doing in Acts 10:

- Hearing the prayer of a man yet to follow Christ (vv. 1-8)
- Making all foods clean (vv. 9-16)
- Reaching out to the nations (vv. 17-29)
- Arranging the salvation of a God-fearing man (vv. 30-33)

Sermon Questions

1. Do you ever struggle with assurance that God hears your prayers?
2. How does Acts 10 build confidence that God hears us? What are some other Scriptures that do the same?
3. In the world of Acts, food was often a cause of broken fellowship. Where do you see the same – in the world, generally, or in your life, particularly?
4. As much as Acts 10 gives us freedom to eat all kinds of foods, Scripture also calls us to steward that freedom well (for example, Romans 14:1-4 and Proverbs 23:20-21).
 - a. Right now, are there ways you’re walking in legalism instead of freedom?
 - b. Right now, are there ways you’re wrongly stewarding your freedom?
5. Why are you thankful for God’s heart for the nations?
6. How might you share His heart in your current circumstances?
7. Many people have asked: “What about the people in far off nations who’ve never heard the gospel of Jesus?”
 - a. While Acts 10 doesn’t give us an exhaustive answer...
 - b. ...what help does it give us in wrestling with this question?
8. Any other takeaways from this passage or message?
