Matthew 22:1-14

THE ORCHARD

Sermon Questions

1. How do the normal demands of everyday life quietly crowd out our wonder for God's kingdom, and how do we spot our own apathy?
2. In what ways do we settle for temporary comforts instead of the deep, eternal joy God offers us in Christ?
3. How do our hearts subtly resist God's authority when His calling clashes with our personal plans?
4. What does it look like for us to dangerously presume upon God's grace while living life on our own terms?
5. How do we guard against going through the religious motions without showing true reverence before the King?
6. How does God's patience in inviting rebels to His feast change the way we view our daily need for repentance?
7. What does it look like for us to practically "wear the wedding garments" of righteousness in our daily lives?
