Brethren,

Greetings brothers and sisters. These dear precious young people pictured below are the next generation to go into Africa and reach this nation for Christ! Ps. 126:5-6 "They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him."

Brethren be faithful wherever God has put you. Labor in your part of the vineyard. Don't go running off, stay put and work. Major Ian Thomas said Go where you're sent, stay where you're put and do what you're told. Sounds like a Major doesn't it? Then go! Do the work God has given you. We're not on vacation, we're sent to work for the Master. Next it talks about weeping. When was the last time you wept? I just had a 4 year old dog die and I wept. She was my friend. If we can weep over an animal. What about souls? What about people going to hell? What about Christians who hide their sins, who never forgive, who never love another brother or sister, who only give lip service to God? My friend look in the mirror. What about you and me? Do we pray. Thank God for the people who pray for this missionary. Then the Bible says as we go and pray and as we give out that precious seed. The wonderful word of God. When is the last time you witnessed to someone? When is the last time you told someone about

God's love for them, how that Jesus died for them and how they could be saved? My friend can you remember how long it's been? This is what we need men, women, young people everyone who knows the Lord, tell others about your Savior. Don't be ashamed. Men we get excited and talk about football or that new deckedout F 150 or that new whatever. Women talk about their newest nail or hair style or the young people their newest phone or 10 G internet? We talk about everything but our Lord. We need to start. Amen. Next is a promise from the Lord himself. "You will reap in joy bringing your sheaves into the harvest." What about your lost friends, neighbors, family members? Do you care? God's promise go, weep for their souls, give them the word of God and win them to Christ and then our blessed Lord and Savior will do the work that only He can do and that soul will come to Jesus. Hallelujah to God. The last thing is together. The soul winner, the sinner who is saved rejoicing together. Let's renew ourselves and go and do the greatest work on earth

Your servants,

Ray and Wanda Hoover
