October Report

As summer winds down we find ourselves traveling south and westward for the conclusion of our yearly travels in the next several weeks. We spent a week in Seneca Falls, NY at Seneca Bible Baptist Church. We had wonderful fellowship with Pastor Fenton and Mrs. Fenton as well as the whole church. I was privileged to preach all day Sunday to kick off their Missions Month. It was exciting to see the growth in yet another good church. With continuing outreach, new ministries and a missions emphasis, it's no wonder God is blessing this them abundantly.

Kristi and I took a couple if days stopped near Washington, D.C. to see some of our nations capitol that we had never seen before. It was a blessing to see first hand and be reminded of some of our nations heritage and the sacrifices others have made that we might have the freedoms we so enjoy.

Kristi and I continued south to Bracey, VA to help Pastor Ensley and Blessed Hope Baptist Church. There was a great excitement there and good to see the church had nearly doubled in size since last year. My plan was to help with the building of their house but unfortunately the foundation was not completed. God worked in a wonderful way and our home church was able to send some finances and a mason up to complete the work. It is always encouraging to see other churches get involved in greater ways to help church planters.

From Virginia we traveled to Lafayette, TN to preach for New Song Baptist Church. Once again we arrived to see another church that has doubled in size. Though their sanctuary is a converted 15'x30' shed that is powered with a generator, this congregation had three members out on missions trips and others that fill pulpits regularly proving once again that God doesn't need a "big church" to use it mightily! Which by the way, there is no such thing as a "small church" with God. Jesus gave his life for everyone of them and they are all equally important to God!

Faith is about right doctrine and right doing! Too many churches are not evangelistic and without evangelism they will die. Right doctrine MUST be lived out; this os our faith.
