

"Can I get saved now?"

March – June 2026

Dear Friends,

Last month two new boys came to the church services at the detention center. Bro. Leon gave an invitation, and nobody responded. The following week after the service one of the new boys came up to me and asked, "Can I get saved now?" He pointed at Bro. Leon, saying that Bro. Leon asked if anyone wanted to get saved last week. He continued "I just sat there, but I have been thinking about it all week and wanted to know if it is too late to get saved." I opened my Bible and shared the Gospel with him. The young man bowed his head and asked Christ to save him. Since then, he has been faithful to the services and has been reading his Bible! What a great blessing it is to see God working in the hearts of the teens.

We have been struggling to get the girls to come to the services. Mrs. Alecia and Bro. Leon's wife are going to start going with us on Thursdays to try to work with the girls. Please pray with us that we will start seeing fruit among the teen girls.

In April we went to Caanan Land, in North Carolina to preach to the teens from East Bay Christian School. We had a wonderful week. On the last night I preached on Letting our light shine and to be a witness to others. Almost every teen was at the altar praying and even weeping for lost loved ones. Our oldest daughter, Rebekah, was able to come with the High School students as a counselor. What a double blessing it was to be able to spend time with her as well. This fall will be her third-year teaching at their school.

In June, my parents celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. Their church had a special service for them, and I was privileged to preach it. My Dad will be 80 the last week of July and his health has not been good. He has had multiple stays in the hospital the last few months. They are still praying for someone to take over the ministry there on the Navajo Reservation. Please pray for the Caleb's Mesa Baptist Church and their need for a Pastor.

Thank you for your faithful prayers and support
