Dear Friends,

Sandy's Update:

I do not like doctor or dentist appointments. But this time I was excited. My doctor had me taking Eliquis for the blood clots we had found in my leg. Eliquis is very expensive! My doctor had laid out the plan: "Take Eliquis for three months, then come back and see me. If there are any traces at all of blood clots, we will do another Eliquis three-month time frame. We will have a check-up, and if traces of blood clots are found, you will be on Eliquis the rest of your life."

Greg and I prayed! There were so many other ways we wished to spend our money! ☐ Plus, being well would be great! And I felt great. Finally, we made our trip from Evanston, Wyoming, to Scottsdale, Arizona. It took us two days. We left the camper behind and stayed with Bro. Harold and Janet Shay, close friends from our single days, and we have been married a long time!

The appointment day arrived. My first appointment was an ultrasound. My Specialist explained that if any remnants of the blood clots showed, I would remain on medication. As she ran the machine, she quietly spoke, "Beautiful. Just beautiful."

"Yes! Praise the Lord, no more Eliquis!"

Quickly, she smashed my excitement, "That is up to your doctor. If any random particles are found, he will keep you on your medication."

I kept my mouth closed and opened my heart to the Lord, "Please Lord, don't let them find any remnants or particles!"

My doctor stepped into the room, looked at me, and said, "You look good!" My reply, "I feel good!" I meant it. It had been a long time since I had felt that good. I could freely walk and breathe!

He checked over the ultrasound reports, listened to my heart, and asked a few questions. Finally, he smiled and said, "You can stop the Eliquis... today."

"Today? Right now?"

He smiled again and nodded, "Today." Then, with even more blessings, he cut the dose in half for the water pill I was taking.

God is so good!

I also want to praise the Lord for His answer to prayers. Greg and I had been praying that our Lord would supply the finances for our trip to the doctor. We arrived at a Colorado church, and we were to be parked there for a few days. The Pastor gave Greg a gift card for whatever we might need around town. When Greg went online to activate the card, he found it was worth $500! We tucked it away for the trip. Then, a Pastor at a Wyoming church slipped Greg a check for "a couple of tanks of diesel" totaling $500! Those two sweet blessings from God took us to Scottsdale, Arizona, and all the way back to our camper in Evanston, Wyoming.

God is so good!

Then I want to especially thank all the prayer warriors who have taken time to lift prayers to the throne of God for my benefit. This side of Heaven, you will never know what they have meant to me. Thank you with all my heart! I am feeling so GOOD!

We have had safe travels and good meetings. Thank you for the Churches that have had us in and all who uphold us in prayer. We appreciate you more than we can express.

Thank you for your faithful support of Prayers & $75.00 monthly.

We love y'all and look forward to the next time we can serve the Lord together. Thank you for helping us travel the Trails of Evangelism!
