Greater New Orleans
Hotel & Lodging
Association

Executive Director Opportunity

The Greater New Orleans Hotel & Lodging Association is preparing to launch a search for its next Executive Director. This leader will represent the region's hotel and lodging industry, strengthen relationships with members, and advocate for their interests with government and community partners.

We are seeking a collaborative, visible leader with experience in association or hospitality leadership, advocacy, and working with a board of directors. If you are interested in helping shape the future of New Orleans' hotel and lodging industry, please contact Winner Partners at GNOHLA@winnerpartners.net.
