Investment Associate Opportunity

The Hillman Company is a single-family investment office headquartered in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania with more than 100 years of experience in private equity investment. They provide investment advisory services to its holding company and Hillman Family Foundations. Investments include domestic and international private and public equity, including buyouts, venture capital, real asset and emerging market themes. With significant commitments to both private and public asset classes, The Hillman Company remains committed to growing for decades to come by partnering with the strongest teams and investment talent in the industry. Their partners benefit from a stable source of capital as well as the quality of their team.

The Hillman Company is seeking a dynamic Investment Associate to join their team. The Investment Team is comprised of seven senior investment professionals and two associates who work in a collaborative manner across a “flat” organizational structure. Associates work alongside senior investment professionals, usually in teams of two or three, in a supporting capacity. Associates also interact with highly seasoned investors across the world, with which the organization collaborates and partners. The organization has a successful heritage and track record of investment with some of the best private and public equity funds globally.

Highly qualified individuals with enthusiasm for learning and a passion for investing with experience in finance, banking, or investment are encouraged to submit their resume, letter of interest, and references to: Hillman@winnerpartners.net
