

Cheryl Barruso

Cheryl serves on the leadership team at Winner Partners and has been an integral part of our journey since its inception. She has led the development of our infrastructure with a focus on strategy, financial management, risk management, and technology integration.

Spending over 30 years in the industry developing and managing talent at all levels, Cheryl is the perfect choice to be our lead Talent Development partner. She has interviewed and hired thousands of professionals and has hundreds of mentoring success stories to her credit.

Offering management and executive coaching services, Cheryl can help you take your career to the next level, identify blind spots that may be holding you back from landing that perfect next opportunity, or take your career in an entirely new direction.

Cheryl graduated with a degree in Finance from Duquesne University, and calls Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania home. Her family is the world to her with a son ready to embark on a new career journey and two amazing parents who are still thriving into their 90's.
