

Vincent Trinidad

Vincent Trinidad joins Winner Partners as Executive Talent Partner. Vincent is a vibrant changemaker with over 25 years of experience in sports, tourism, and nonprofit industries. He has worked for or with groups including Local Organizing Committees, National Governing Bodies, Sports Commissions, Convention & Visitors Bureaus, Parks & Recreations, and Chambers of Commerce. In addition, he has worked with elected officials at the City, County/Parish, State, and National levels.

A graduate of the University of Arizona, he earned two industry certifications: A Certified Sports Event Executive (CSEE) from the NASC (Sports ETA), and an Institute of Organizational Management (IOM) graduate. IOM is a 96-hour continuing education program offered through the US Chamber of Commerce Foundation.

Vincent is an Arizona native. He and his wife Joanne have been blessed with two sons and one daughter. His passion and enthusiasm have taken his career to great places in the Southwest, the Pacific Northwest, and the South and now he hangs his hat in Jenks, Oklahoma