About Wilmot Modular Structures

For 35 years, Wilmot Modular Structures has been redefining the possibilities of modular construction, delivering high-quality, flexible space solutions for industries ranging from education and healthcare to government, commercial, and construction, supporting jobsites of all sizes — from temporary offices and breakrooms to long-term infrastructure support. Wilmot is a market leader at the top end of the modular industry.

Wilmot's brand new world-class HQ doubles as a sales engine, wowing customers the moment they walk in. Backed by a high-performing leadership team and a disciplined Entrepreneurial Operating System (EOS), they are firing on all cylinders. They are not coasting – they're scaling, and Wilmot is seeking someone with proven leadership success in this kind of environment.

The Opportunity

Winner Partners is assisting Wilmot in their search for a true "Integrator" COO, a proven growth driver who can turn bold vision into flawless execution. Reporting to CEO & Owner Mike Wilmot, the COO has complete oversight of sales & leasing, finance, operations, marketing, and customer service.
