GATHERING

TODAY'S SERVICE IS USING ELW: RED BOOK

PRELUDE:

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS:

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS:

A: We confess our sins before God and one another.

Pause for silence and reflection.

A: Incarnate God,

C: You have given us the most precious gift of all: yourself. And yet we live as if there is nothing extraordinary about being your children. We forget, ignore, or devalue your blessings of grace and forgiveness. We undermine ourselves and others, and refuse to seek help when it is available. Show us your mercy and forgive our stubborn ways, for the sake of Jesus. Amen.

A: Immanuel is here. Fear has been banished. Hear the words of your redemption in the angels' chorus and see your salvation in the real person of Christ on earth. We are forgiven, and we are never alone. Amen.

CALL TO WORSHIP:

A: A child is born! God's son has come to us!

C: Glory to God in the highest heaven!

A: Do not be afraid—this is good news!

C: Glory to God in the highest heaven!

A: Let the heavens be glad, and the earth rejoice!

C: Glory to God in the highest heaven!

Today's Scripture

Isaiah 9:2-7

Psalm 96

Luke 2:1-14, [15-20]

*Light one candle in the night. Light one candle of Peace;
Peace for the world to calm its fear; Peace for the news we long to hear;
Peace in a child who will soon appear Light one candle of Peace.*

One:

The prophet Isaiah proclaimed, "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light."
Tonight we gather to celebrate that light born among us in Jesus.

Two:

The angels sang, "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors." Tonight we remember that God's promise of hope, peace, joy, and love comes to life in a child laid in a manger.

Three:

(Light candles 1, 2, 3, and 4)

We relight the first candle, a sign of our hope for true peace on Earth.

We relight the second candle, a sign of God's peace rooted in justice.

We relight the third candle, a sign of the joy that brightens our waiting.

We relight the fourth candle, a sign of love that comes near and will not let us go.

Four:

(Light the Christ candle)

We light this Christ candle as a sign that God's promise is fulfilled:

The Light of the World has come. In Jesus, hope is born, peace is given, joy is shared, and love is made flesh among us.

All: Jesus Christ, Light of the World, shine in our lives and in all the earth. Amen.

CHILDREN'S SERMON:

SCRIPTURE READING:

Isaiah 9:2-7

²The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness— on them light has shined. ³You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder.
⁴For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. ⁵For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire. ⁶For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. ⁷His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

PSALM:

Psalm 96

R: O sing to the Lord a new song; sing to the Lord, all the earth.

C: Sing to the Lord, bless his name; tell of his salvation from day to day.

R: Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous works among all the peoples.

C: For great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; he is to be revered above all gods.

R: For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but the Lord made the heavens.

C: Honor and majesty are before him; strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

R: Ascribe to the Lord, O families of the peoples, ascribe to the Lord glory and strength.

C: Ascribe to the Lord the glory due his name; bring an offering, and come into his courts.

R: Worship the Lord in holy splendor; tremble before him, all the earth.

C: Say among the nations, “The Lord is king! The world is firmly established; it shall never be moved. He will judge the peoples with equity.”

R: Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice; let the sea roar, and all that fills it;

C: let the field exult, and everything in it. Then shall all the trees of the forest sing for joy

R: before the Lord; for he is coming, for he is coming to judge the earth.

He will judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with his truth.

GOSPEL:

Luke 2:1-14, [15-20]

Glory to you, O Lord

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. ²This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. ³All went to their own towns to be registered. ⁴Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. ⁵He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. ⁶While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. ⁷And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn. ⁸In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. ⁹Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. ¹⁰But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: ¹¹to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. ¹²This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.” ¹³And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, ¹⁴“Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!” [¹⁵When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.” ¹⁶So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. ¹⁷When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; ¹⁸and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. ¹⁹But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. ²⁰The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.]

HYMN:

It Came Upon a Midnight Clear
(Sung until all individual candles are lit)

ELW 282 Red

CANDLELIGHT VIGIL:

A: Long ago, in a town called “House of Bread,” the Bread of Life was born.

His mother, Mary, placed him in a feeding trough where animals eat their food.

But this baby came to feed the whole world.

And from this manger, he will grow and leave his home—he will go out into the world, feed the people, and teach us how to love God and one another.

The final candle has been lit because the birth of Jesus changed everything.

We must take this light, this Bread of Life, and share it with a hungry world. Behold, Christ is born.

CLOSING HYMN:

Silent Night, Holy Night

CHARGE AND BENEDICTION

A: May Christ, the Bread of Life, born this day to love and serve the world, accompany you as you go.

May the love of our Creator, who calls us to care for the hungry and oppressed, surround you.

And may the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, who empowers us to imagine a kingdom where all needs are met, strengthen you, now and always.

Go in hope, peace, joy, and love to feed the hungry, comfort the afflicted, and share the good news of Christ’s birth.
