The monthly newsletter of Immanuel Lutheran Church of Almelund, MN

By the time you read this, the turkey leftovers may be mostly gone, the darker evenings have settled in, and the church year has quietly flipped over to a new beginning: Advent.

And Advent, more than anything else, is a season of hope, but what are you hoping for?

“I hope I get everything done before Christmas.”

“I hope the weather cooperates.”

“I hope the kids behave for at least one picture.”

After Turkey Bingo, a lot of us were quietly hoping:

“I hope my card wins the turkey this year...”

But if what we “hope” for never comes and it leaves us bitter, anxious, or afraid it might not have been hope in the Christian sense at all. It may have been something closer to security:

“I hope things don’t change.”

“I hope nothing bad happens.”

“I hope I can keep control.”

In Luke 21, Jesus does something incredibly disruptive: he stands in front of the most impressive, seemingly permanent building his friends know the Temple and says, “The days will come when not one stone will be left upon another.”

Man, Jesus, talk about a buzz kill.

We like big strong things. Strong buildings. Strong institutions. Strong plans. Strong bank accounts. Plus, we can post those things to the book or the gram. If we’re honest, that’s often what we mean by “hope”: I hope nothing falls apart.

But Jesus doesn’t promise that.

He says there will be wars, earthquakes, famines, plagues, and frightening signs. He says some of his followers will be hated, betrayed, even killed.

And then right in the middle of that he says:

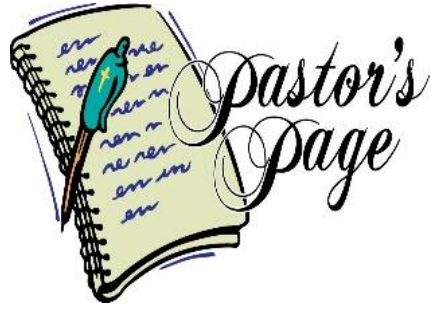

“Not a hair of your head will perish.

By your endurance you will gain your lives.”

It sounds like a contradiction, unless we realize:

Jesus is looking beyond our desire to be un-scratched and pointing to a deeper promise that even when the stones fall, even when our plans crack, we are not lost to God.

Christian hope is not, “Nothing bad will happen to me.”

Christian hope is, “Nothing can separate me from the love of God in Christ Jesus.”

There’s a kind of “religious hope” that says, “Hang on and eventually you’ll escape this messy world”

But in Luke, Jesus says something very different:

“This will give you an opportunity to testify.”

When the world shakes, that’s not our cue to disappear.

It’s our opportunity to witness to quietly, stubbornly, gratefully live like Jesus really is Lord:

- To keep lighting candles in the dark.
- To keep showing up for each other.
- To keep giving, serving, and forgiving even when it would be easier to shut down.

That’s Advent hope.

It’s not passive. It doesn’t curl up by the fire and wait for it all to blow over.

It gives fervor instead of complacency.

Advent doesn’t give us a way out of this world; it gives us a God who comes into this world into our headlines and hospital rooms, our kitchen tables and quiet worries so that no place we stand is God-forsaken.

Happy Advent

Pastor Justin

New! Sermon Note Art

This fall we're trying a new way to listen to the sermon together. As you come into the sanctuary, pick up a blank index card from the back of the narthex (or ask an usher).

During the sermon:

- Confirmation students: write your name on the back of the card.
- Write the sermon theme or main point somewhere on the card.
- Then respond:
 - draw a picture of something that spoke to you, or
 - write a short poem, phrase, or little story.

When you're finished, you can:

- hand your card to Pastor Justin after worship, or
- place it in his box.

If you're especially proud of your artwork or words, feel free to sign your name on the front as well.

This is for everyone, not just confirmation students!

Each week a selection of “Sermon Note Art” will be displayed in the Sunday School hallway as a way to share what God is stirring in our hearts.

Message Board – Looked at Kim’s design using the Swedish blue & yellow colors. Suggested changing “The Welcome Place” to Everyone Welcome OR All Are Welcome. For an aluminum composit (printed vinyl) the cost would be $300 – would use the existing lighting. Another option is to have a sign made of white polycarbonate which would start at $400 – cost would increase with cutting/gluing individual letters, numbers, design coloration, etc. Would need to add backlighting. Also – committee suggests new wrought iron lettering. Clay & Pam will check on the cost. The white sign on the front lawn needs attention, too – could someone paint this? Worship & Music thinks all this information should now go to Property Committee.

Sampler – March 1, 2026. Not too early to start getting donations for the auction...do have a 36” Blackstone Grill.

Wondered if the Holy Hootenanners would be interested in playing for that Sunday’s worship service and then staying to play for the Sampler. Tora talked with her niece and was told they don’t perform much anymore.

New Christ Candle is in place! Looks Great!

Mouse Exterminator – Troy Timmermanis came from White Bear Lake and did not charge...give him $100 gas card, homemade Apple Pie (Tora), and ask quilters if they would donate a quilt.

New Business:

Worship Team:

- Service formats/hymns are done through November 9.
- Purchase “Clergy Stuff”, a good resource for Sunday Worship - Cost is $200/year. Need to upgrade the CCLI License to Premium Level which would allow us to print out the full score, not just the melody line. MSP to purchase both “Clergy Stuff” and upgrade CCLI license to Premium Level.
- Worship Team will work on the Advent Season when resources come.
- Re-kindle ILC Band? Worship & Music thinks this would be great to get this going again!

Prayer Concerns:

Closed with The Lord’s Prayer for all concerns mentioned.

Next Scheduled Meeting: November 24, 2025 @ 6:00

Devotions: Pastor Justin
