The Old Rugged Cross

*On a hill far away stood an old rugged cross, the emblem of suffering and shame;
and I love that old cross where the dearest and best for a world of lost sinners was slain.*

*So I'll cherish the old rugged cross, till my trophies at last I lay down;
I will cling to the old rugged cross, and exchange it some day for a crown.*

*In that old rugged cross, stained with blood so divine, a wondrous beauty I see,
for 'twas on that old cross Jesus suffered and died,
to pardon and sanctify me.*

*To that old rugged cross I will ever be true, its shame and reproach gladly bear;
then he'll call me some day to my home far away, where his glory forever I'll share*

All Things Bright and Beautiful

*All things bright and beautiful
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful
The Lord God made them all.*

*Each little flower that opens Each little bird that sings,
He made their glowing colours
He made their tiny wings.*

*The purple headed mountains
The river running by,
The sunset and the morning
That brightens up the sky.*

*He gave us eyes to see them
And lips that we might tell,
How great is God Almighty
Who has made all things well.*
