

ST PETER'S PARISH NEWSLETTER

Served by the Rosminians

11th OCTOBER 2026

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time (YEAR A)

Let us seek comfort in the infinite mercy of God. This word infinite should fill our hearts with hope. The ways of the Lord are wonderful and quite beyond our imaginings. We must adore His majesty and never forget the infinite treasures of His goodness. We must remember that nothing is more pleasing to God than our trust in Him.

Then he said to his servants, "The wedding feast is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore to the main roads and invite to the wedding feast as many as you find." And those servants went out into the roads and gathered all whom they found, both bad and good. So the wedding hall was filled with guests. (Matthew 22:8-10)

May your grace, O Lord,
we pray, at all times go before us
and follow after and make us always determined to carry out good works. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

The 15 Promises of the Rosary

1. Those who faithfully serve me by the recitation of the Rosary shall receive signal graces. 2. I promise my special protection and the greatest graces to all those who shall recite the Rosary. 3. The Rosary shall be a powerful armor against hell. It will destroy vice, decrease sin, and defeat heresies. 4. The recitation of the Rosary will cause virtue and good works to flourish. It will obtain for souls the abundant mercy of God. It will withdraw the hearts of men from the love of the world and its vanities, and will lift them to the desire of eternal things. Oh, that souls would sanctify themselves by this means. 5. The soul which recommends itself to me by the recitation of the Rosary shall not perish. 6. Those who recite my Rosary devoutly, applying themselves to the consideration of its sacred mysteries, shall never be conquered by misfortune. In His justice, God will not chastise them; nor shall they perish by an unprovided death, i.e., be unprepared for heaven. Sinners shall convert. The just shall persevere in grace and become worthy of eternal life. 7. Those who have a true devotion to the Rosary shall not die without the sacraments of the Church. 8. Those who faithfully recite the Rosary shall have, during their life and at their death, the light of God and the plenitude of His graces. At the moment of death, they shall participate in the merits of the saints in paradise. 9. I shall deliver from purgatory those who have been devoted to the Rosary. 10. The faithful children of the Rosary shall merit a high degree of glory in heaven. 11. By the recitation of the Rosary you shall obtain all that you ask of me. 12. Those who propagate the holy Rosary shall be aided by me in their necessities. 13. I have obtained from my Divine Son that all the advocates of the Rosary shall have for intercessors the entire celestial court during their life and at the hour of their death. 14. All who recite the Rosary are my beloved children and the brothers and sisters of my only Son, Jesus Christ. 15. Devotion to my Rosary is a great sign of predestination.

God's Love for You

The Holy Family's Humility & Meekness (2)

When Joseph knew about Mary's pregnancy, tormenting anxieties filled his heart as God has not reveal to him about His Plan.

Although he did not doubt purity and innocence of Mary, he probably recognised in her the power of a miracle and a vast mystery which he held himself unworthy to approach. Since he had read in Scripture that the virgin would conceive and that 'a shoot shall sprout from the stock of Jesse, and from his roots a bud shall blossom'.

He also knew that Mary was descended from the line of David. Yet he could not fathom this mystery. Therefore, in his humility he doubted his worthiness and ability to take care of Mary and the child, so he decided to separate himself from her quietly out of justice to God and reverence for Mary...

But of course, we then learned the angel appeared to him in a dream and stopped him from leaving. Where else can we see this virtue from Joseph? From private revelation, Blessed A. Emmerich gave us some scenes about Joseph during the Nativity: 'These people appeared to have come at least some miles and that secretly, for they avoided being seen in the city. Joseph behaved with great humility during such visits, retiring and looking on from some distant corner.'

'...some men, spies of Herod, had come from Bethlehem, in consequence of the rumour set afloat by the words of the shepherds, that a miracle had there taken place in connection with a child. These men met St. Joseph in front of the Crib Cave. After exchanging a few words with him, they left him with a contemptuous smile at his humility and simplicity.' Venerable Mary of Agreda also gave us further insight: '...with tears of joy he (Joseph) said to the heavenly Spouse (Mary): "Is it possible, that in your most chaste arms I shall see my God and Redeemer? That I shall hear him speak, and touch Him, and that my eyes shall look upon his divine face, and that the sweat of my face shall be so blessed as to be poured out in his service and for his sustenance? That He shall live with us, and that we shall eat with Him at the same table, and that we shall speak with Him? Where does this good fortune that comes to me, which no one can ever deserves, come from? O how much do I regret that I am so poor!' 'At other times the saint (Joseph) asked the most pure Lady (Mary) to teach him the nature and essence of virtues, especially of the love of God, in order that he might know how to behave toward the Most High become man and in order that he might not be rejected as a useless and incapable servant.'

An invitation to parish catechists

The Archdiocese, in collaboration with the Catechetical Institute of Franciscan University, has established a Catechist Formation Track to help catechists deepen their knowledge of the Catholic faith and grow in confidence and skill for their ministry. The Formation Track is completed at your pace from the comfort of your own home and you will be assigned a formation companion to accompany you on the journey. For information about the programme and enrolment, please contact Canon Michael Doyle or Fr Bernard Sixtus by emailing CI@cardiffmenevia.com.
