2nd SUNDAY of EASTER – DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY (YEAR A)

Jesus Christ alone is the Saviour of the world. He leads us to God, our true end, by means of His Blood, by His grace, by His constant action on the soul, and by His will. In this work of salvation, intelligence, strength, wealth, human endeavours count for nothing. Nothing at all can save us, except the power of Jesus Christ.

10.00am Weekday Mass follows with Adoration. Confession after Masses on Weekday & before Vigil Mass.

Then he said to Thomas, 'Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side. Do not disbelieve, but believe.' Thomas answered him, 'My Lord and my God!' (John 20:27-28)

God of everlasting mercy, who, in the very recurrence of the paschal feast kindle the faith of the people you have made your own, increase, we pray, the grace you have bestowed, that all may grasp and rightly understand in what font they have been washed, by whose Spirit they have been reborn, by whose Blood they have been redeemed. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

JESUS, I TRUST IN YOU

Holy Hour for the Dignity of Life

Sunday 19th April 4:30pm

The Catholic
Bishops of England and Wales will hold a Holy Hour to pray for the promotion of a culture of life in our lands. Please join the Bishops in prayer as peers in the House of Lords continue to debate whether to make Assisted Suicide law, so to offer this petition to Our Lord for the dignity of life from conception to natural end and to pray that assisted suicide will not become law.

CBCEW have produced a two-page PDF that can be printed and used to pray in this Holy Hour. If you wish to observe a personal Holy Hour at home (i.e. where the Blessed Sacrament is not exposed), then the use of readings and reflections in the document can help guide this.

2026 Senedd Election

Archbishop Mark O'Toole's Letter

The Archbishop has written to Catholics in Wales urging them to vote in the upcoming Senedd Election. His letter called on Catholics to "participate actively in these elections and to fulfil their civic duty by voting for candidates who will best uphold the dignity of the human person and the common good."

He also wrote: "This is your opportunity to shape the future of Wales through a Catholic lens for the good of all. As you discern among the candidates and their approach to these and other important issues, I encourage you to pray for those who are seeking election and those who govern. May their decisions be always guided by the wisdom of the Holy Spirit and a true desire to serve the people of Wales, especially the most vulnerable."

Five Key Areas of Importance

Ahead of the election, the Catholic Bishops' Conference of England and Wales has issued a document outlining the work of the Catholic Church in Wales as well as the Catholic community's main policy requests.
The document highlights five key areas of importance for the Catholic Church in Wales: Education, Life Issues, Historic Churches, Healthcare and the Environment.

Guide for Catholics

Caritas Cardiff-Menevia has produced a guide – The Senedd Election 2026: Every Vote Counts – to help explain the new electoral system, who can vote, and how to make an informed choice.
Every Catholic in our Diocese to read the guide, reflect carefully, and use their vote.
