

I have never understood why some people should lament that they do not know what to do with their time, as if our Lord Jesus Christ, by His command to love our brothers and sisters, has not offered to everyone an immense field in which to use and even exhaust all our strength and time; and such labour, which our divine Master has given us, is not only plentiful but also enjoyable and far reaching.

25th JANUARY 2026

3rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (YEAR A)

"...the people dwelling in darkness have seen a great light, and for those dwelling in the region and shadow of death, on them a light has dawned.' From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.'" (Matthew 4:16-17)

Almighty ever-living God, direct our actions according to
 your good pleasure,
 that in the name of your
 beloved Son we may abound
 in good works.
 Through our Lord
 Jesus Christ, your Son,
 who lives and reigns with you
 in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 God, for ever and ever.
 Amen.

Sunday of the Word of God
25th January 2026

This year's theme is:
"Let the word of Christ dwell among you."
Colossians 3:16.

Archbishop Rino Fisichella told us:

"...What we have received from the Apostle is not a simple moral exhortation, but the indication of a new way of living. Paul does not ask that the Word be merely listened to or studied; he wants it to dwell, that is, to take up stable residence, to shape our thoughts, guide our desires, and make credible the witness of the disciples...this motto remains for us a precious inheritance: an invitation addressed to the whole Church to place the Gospel once more at the centre, since every true renewal is born from docile listening to the Word. To welcome it means allowing ourselves to be accompanied by the One who does not deceive, because He gives life and hope. To be inhabited by the Word ultimately means permitting Christ to speak even today through our lives, so that every person may recognize His presence, which continues to illuminate the journey of history. ...When space is given to the Word, each person discovers that the Word of God dwells in the heart like a seed that, in due time, sprouts and bears fruit. Indeed, all of us are invited to nourish ourselves with the daily bread of the Word and, afterwards, to proclaim it to our brothers and sisters, for proclamation flows from the abundance of the heart...Today it is up to us to ensure that the same Word reaches the ends of the earth, so as to transform the life of all peoples by dwelling among us."

World Leprosy Day Sunday 25th January 2026

Today is also a time to pray for and stand in solidarity with people affected by leprosy around the world. The John Bradburne Memorial Society (JBMS) is calling on individuals and communities to support its mission on World Leprosy Day. The Society is named in honour of John Bradburne, 'Servant of God', who served for ten years as warden of the Mutemwa Leprosy Care Centre in Zimbabwe. John Bradburne's unwavering compassion, faith and dedication to those living with leprosy left a profound legacy. Inspired by his life and witness, JBMS continues his work by supporting people affected by leprosy, raising awareness of the disease, and helping fund the ongoing operations of Mutemwa. Please consider supporting this vital work through prayer, awareness or donation. Contributions to JBMS go directly towards supporting the Mutemwa Leprosy Care Centre where patients receive essential medical care, food and shelter. Visit: www.johnbradburne.com

Legislative Consent Motion on Assisted Suicide Bill

Archbishop Mark and Bishop Peter Brignall have issued a joint statement on Assisted Suicide: 'As the Senedd prepares to debate whether to give legislative consent to Westminster's Terminally Ill Adults (End of Life) Bill, Archbishop Mark and Bishop Peter Brignall wish to express their deep concern about legalising assisted suicide in Wales.

International experience shows that where assisted suicide is legalised, eligibility criteria expand over time and subtle pressure is placed on those who are elderly, disabled, or who fear becoming a burden. True compassion means accompanying those who suffer and ensuring no one feels abandoned, not ending life. They urge Members of the Senedd to withhold consent and focus on strengthening palliative care. On Monday 26th January, those who can are asked to observe a day of fasting in solidarity with the vulnerable.

Please also engage respectfully with your Member of the Senedd to make your voice heard on this important decision for Wales.'

God's Love for You

The importance of family

(Continue from last week)
Pope John Paul II once said, "Every family carries a light and every family is a light...a light which must illuminate the Church's path and the future of the world." Therefore, family should be like a greenhouse for your children, where your tender loving care is given to their delicate hearts, your morality is shown to their simple hearts and your Catholic Faith is passed on to their innocent hearts. It is not easy to be a good parent, although no one is perfect, but one should keep trying and striving. Keep in mind that we are not without a real perfect example - the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. Let us see how they live and let them be our inspiration and guide to follow.
