

ST PETER'S PARISH NEWSLETTER

Served by the Rosminians

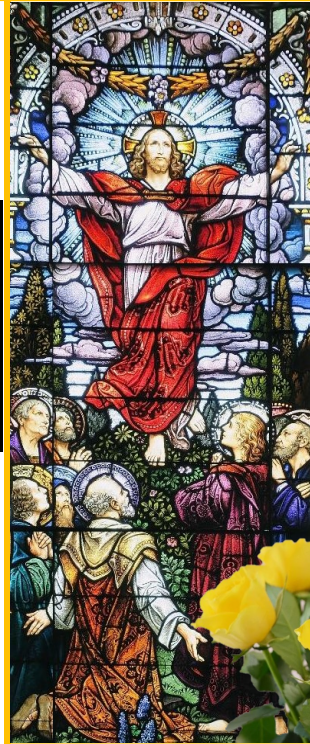

10th MAY 2026

6th SUNDAY of EASTER (YEAR A)

In all matters, above all, let us keep on praying; this is the most effective means we can use. Let us put everything in the hands of most holy Mary; let us have an unlimited devotion to her; and we shall see how well this good Mother of ours will protect us and bring about a happy conclusion for her devoted children. In short, let us have no doubts: let us simply adopt all the means I have mentioned, with lively faith and perseverance.

"Jesus said to his disciples, 'If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you for ever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you.'" (John 14:15-17)

Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord

Thursday 14th May

Holy Day of Obligation

Grant, almighty God, that we may celebrate with heartfelt devotion these days of joy, which we keep in honour of the risen Lord, and that what we relive in remembrance we may always hold to in what we do. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

National flags

On this Solemnity, we would like to decorate the Church with different national flags that represent all the nationalities that make up our Parish Community.

If you have a national flag, can you please bring it to the Church by Sunday 17 May. There will be a box in the porch (please label the flag with your name for returning).

Nationalities in the Parish

We wish to celebrate the diversity of Parishioners in our Parish on Pentecost. Please add your own Nationality or Ethnicity to the list in the entrance THIS WEEKEND. The list will be typed up and attached to the newsletter on Pentecost Sunday.

Bidding Prayers on Pentecost Sunday

NEXT WEEKEND, we will be looking for parishioners to volunteer to say one bidding prayer in their own language on Pentecost Sunday.

National Dress

To celebrate the diversity in our Parish and if you have an ethnic costume, perhaps you may wish to wear it at the Pentecost Sunday Mass.

The Our Father

At the Pentecost Mass, we will ask parishioners to say Our Father Prayer in their own language (all at the same time) if they wish.
