THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST (Corpus Christi) (Year C)

No one is necessary to the Divine Redeemer for the glorification of His Church, that is, for redeeming mankind from the slavery of sin, in which all men without exception are involved. Only in His mercy, freely bestowed, does He choose from among the redeemed those whom He pleases to raise to such an honour; and even for the greatest works he uses what is weak and contemptible in the eyes of the world.

‘“We have no more than five loaves and two fish...”...there were about five thousand men...taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven and said a blessing over them. Then he broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. And they all ate and were satisfied.’
(Luke 9:13-14,16-17)

O God, who in this wonderful Sacrament have left us a memorial of your Passion, grant us, we pray, so to revere the sacred mysteries of your Body and Blood that we may always experience in ourselves the fruits of your redemption.
Who live and reign with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus

is one of the most profound and deeply cherished celebrations within the Catholic Church. This feast invites us to contemplate the immense love of Christ, taking Jesus Christ's physical heart as the representation of His divine, infinite, compassionate and unconditional love, as well as His long-suffering towards humanity. In contemplating the Sacred Heart, we are reminded of God's unwavering commitment to us, despite our failings and sins. This devotion calls us to a personal relationship with Jesus, encouraging us to open our own hearts to His transformative love. It is through His heart that we understand the depth of His passion, His compassion and His ultimate act of salvation on the cross. It is also an invitation to live in a state of grace, love and mercy, reflecting Christ's heart in our interactions with others.

God's Love for You

Christian Marriage (1)

When it comes to Vocations, it is very easy to link this word to Priests, religious brothers and nuns. But do you know, marriage - a union between a man and woman, is also a Vocation too. In fact, this is the first vocation in human history. Because after God created the first male and female, He blessed and said to them: "Be fruitful, multiply, fill the earth, and subdue it..." (Genesis 1:28). So this is the first 'Mission' He gave to human - 'a man leaves his father and his mother and cleaves to his wife, and they become one flesh.' (Genesis 2:24) Moreover, this union through the 'covenant between baptized persons has been raised by Christ the Lord to the dignity of a Sacrament'. (CCC 1601) During this Sacrament, in front of God and His Church as their witnesses, the man and woman declare their consents and enter the covenant of Holy Matrimony, to have and to hold each other from that day forward, and till death do they part. Therefore, Christian marriage should not be a moment of impulse, nor it is only just 'be together in sexual love and have children'. It is a life-long commitment and a sacred union involve a solemn promise to each other. Yes, a good Christian Marriage is the summit of love.
