EASTER SUNDAY (YEAR A)

Christ's death was a credit of such infinite value that it not only paid for the debt due by fallen humanity to Divine Justice, but it also merited for men indescribable gifts of great price.

This is why Holy Scripture attributes the salvation of the world to the Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

"So Peter went out with the other disciple, and they were going towards the tomb. Both of them were running together... Then the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the Scripture, that he must rise from the dead." (John 20:3,4,8,9)

O God, who on this day, through your Only Begotten Son, have conquered death and unlocked for us the path to eternity, grant, we pray, that we who keep the solemnity of the Lord's Resurrection may, through the renewal brought by your Spirit, rise up in the light of life. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Rosminian Fathers in St Peter's Parish would like to wish you all a very Happy Easter!

CAFOD Weekly Reflections

Based on the gospel for Sunday 5 April, Easter Sunday: John 20:1-9

"Now on the first day of the week Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early, while it was still dark, and saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb."

In this gospel we join Mary in the resurrection garden as she finds the empty tomb. Soon she will see the risen Christ, whom she mistakes for the gardener. The symbolism is rich.

The resurrected Jesus is the new Adam, who has turned the wood of the cross into the Tree of Life. This Lent, we have seen signs of the new life of the resurrection in the stories of our neighbours around the world. We've seen them creating flourishing gardens in places of drought and flood. We've heard stories of courageous peacemakers, faithful stewards of God's creation and dedicated advocates standing against injustice. As we celebrate Easter on Sunday, we can rejoice that God's love is stronger than heavy stones, stronger than hatred or division, stronger than our fears and failures and stronger even than death.

May we enter this Easter season with joy, ready to share our hope that, through God's grace, a better world for all people is possible.

Divine Mercy Sunday

12th April 2026
2pm

St Joseph's Church, Cardiff

2:00 pm - Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Confession

2:45pm - Talk on Divine Chaplet

3:00pm - Divine Mercy Chaplet

3:15 pm- Divine Mercy Image Veneration 3:30 pm - Benediction. Followed by Mass

After the celebration all are invited to the hall for refreshments

In the year 2000, Pope John Paul II designated the Second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday; a plenary indulgence is granted (under the usual conditions) to the faithful who, on the Second Sunday of Easter, in any church or chapel, in a spirit that is completely detached from affection for sin, even venial sin, take part in the prayers and devotions held in honour of Divine Mercy, or who, in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament exposed or reserved in the tabernacle, recite the Our Father and the Creed, adding a devout prayer to the merciful Lord Jesus (e.g. "Merciful Jesus, I trust in you!"). A partial indulgence is granted to the faithful who, at least with a contrite heart, pray to the merciful Lord Jesus a legitimately approved invocation.
