What's Included

The Catholic Kids Bulletin downloads include bulletins for all Sunday Masses and Holy Days of Obligation in U.S. dioceses. If you have a Holy Day of Obligation that isn't included, email me at Theresa@catholickidsbulletin.com and I'll try to include it in a future download.

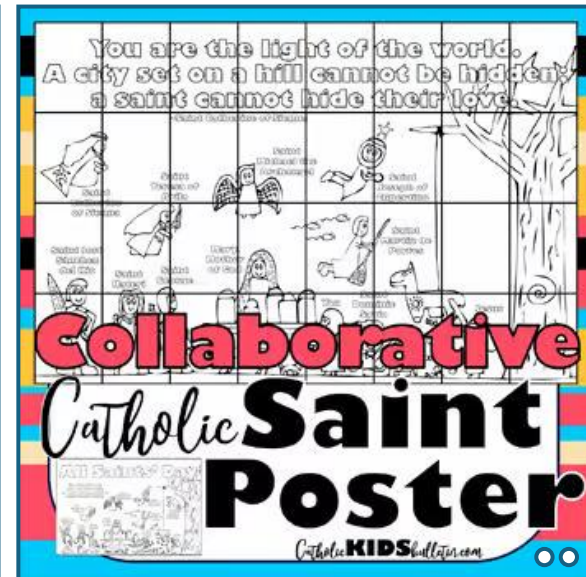

The Ascension is listed without a date because most dioceses celebrate it on Sunday, while some still celebrate it on Thursday. This allows you to use the bulletin for either celebration.

Ash Wednesday, Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday are also included, even though they aren't Holy Days of Obligation.

During Lent, the 3rd, 4th, and 5th Sundays may use either the regular Year B readings or the Year B Scrutinies. Both versions are included and labeled in the lower-left corner.

Scripture texts are taken from the New American Bible, revised edition © 2010, 1991, 1986, 1970 Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, Washington, DC and are used by permission of the copyright owner. All rights reserved.

Today's Mass is about the saints in Heaven. Are there pictures and statues of saints in your church?
Do you know the names of any of the saints?

Jesus stood on a mountain to teach the Sermon on the Mount. Follow the maze to reach Jesus.

for they will be called children of God.

Jesus was teaching His disciples. These teachings are called the Beatitudes. Listen carefully to learn how Jesus asks us to live. The Beatitudes are blessings that help us be happy with God.

Saint Martin de Porres

Saint Martin de Porres is known as the Saint of the Broom. He served everyone as a way to serve God. He worked in a monastery and took care of the priests and brothers. He cooked, cleaned, and cared for the sick. He did every job without complaining.

Pray to Saint Martin instead of complaining when it is time to clean your room.

Look around the church and notice all the symbols of Heaven—things that remind us of God, angels, and the beauty of being with Him forever.

Jesus told a parable to remind us that we should always be ready for heaven. There were 10 girls waiting for a groom to arrive for a wedding. Five of the girls brought extra oil for their lamps, so they were ready when the groom arrived.

Saint Elizabeth of Hungary

Saint Elizabeth of Hungary was a princess. She spent royal money to buy bread for the poor. Some people were mad because she was giving away bread.

When they came to yell at her, she opened her coat to show them that she didn't have any bread—it had turned into a bouquet of flowers!

How many loaves of bread can you find in the picture?

today?

God gives each of us special talents and gifts. Like the good servants in the story, we should use those gifts to help people and do good things.

Saint Cecilia

Saint Cecilia is the patron saint of musicians.

Saint Cecilia sang songs of love for Jesus. Listen to the music in church today. Do any of the songs sing about love?

When you sing,
pray to God and tell Him
that you love Him!

Can you find all the instruments in this picture?
There is an organ, a harp, and a guitar.

Today we celebrate that Jesus is the King of the Universe.
He rules over Heaven and Earth!

Saint Nicholas

Saint Nicholas knew that a family needed help, so he dropped gifts into their home. We can celebrate his feast day by putting treats and gifts in people's shoes on December 6th.
