REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY –Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

Prayers said for the souls of good people are never wasted, since if they cannot be applied to them, they will be applied to others suffering souls in Purgatory

The Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

Jesus said " I will destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up".

Memorial candlelit Service for those who have died will be held at 11.00am on Saturday 23rd November. Please invite friends.

There are brown envelopes at the back of Church for your intentions for named relatives and friends during November to be placed in the basket on the altar steps.

On this day we remember all those who gave their lives for their country, all who have suffered and died through acts of war and those who were left behind to mourn.

Grant us, we pray, O Lord our God, the constant gladness of being devoted to you, for it is full and lasting happiness to serve with constancy the author of all that is good, Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever, Amen.

The Holy souls in Purgatory suffer so willingly that they would never agree to come back here on earth, and are truly happy in their hope, being given honour by the Angels on account of their holiness, and full of dignity on account of being the brides of God. Since their glorious destination is definitely assured, it is only a matter of a short delay to the longed for moment when divine Bridegroom will come to lead them in all their beauty and splendour into His chamber of love.
