ST PETER & ST PAUL (Year C)

Oh if only divine love could truly inflame our hearts! Oh if only we could live and die for His love! I can do no other than wish for you what I wish for myself and for all: that the fire of divine love may burn and consume you, or rather, that it may destroy in you what is not of God, so that true, real life may increase in you.

"...you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven..." (Matthew 16:18-19)

O God, who on the Solemnity of the Apostles Peter and Paul give us the noble and holy joy of this day, grant, we pray, that your Church may in all things follow the teaching of those through whom she received the beginnings of right religion. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

*The Solemnity
St Peter
St Paul*

Saints Peter and Paul are considered the foundational pillars of the Church. Peter represents the stability of the Church and the office of the Vicar of Christ. Paul represents the mission of evangelization that was entrusted to the Church by Jesus Himself. He was also the Church's first theologian, which is seen in his numerous letters that expound on the Gospels. Though unlikely, one tradition states that they were both martyred on June 29, in Rome, making them twin martyrs. Their twin martyrdom reminds us that the Church must be both stable and mission-oriented. It must remain grounded in the ancient Truth, yet grow and flower with an ongoing understanding of the mysteries of faith. As we honor these two pillars of the Church, recall the fact that, though they are great saints, they were also ordinary men called to extraordinary vocations. They responded and God used them in ways they could have never imagined. Ponder your own calling in light of theirs and resolve to lay your life down for the Church, joining yourself to these two men so that God can continue their holy mission through you.

TODAY there is a second collection for Peter's Pence

What is Peter's Pence?

It is an offering that may be small, but is of great symbolic value: It expresses the sense of belonging to the Church and love and trust for the Holy Father. It is a tangible sign of communion with Him, as Peter's Successor, and also of attention to the needs of the most disadvantaged, for whom the Pope always cares.

Peter's Pence's aims

- To support the Holy Father's mission, which extends throughout the entire world.
- To support the numerous charitable works in aid of people and families in difficulty, populations afflicted by natural disasters and wars, or who are in need of humanitarian assistance or support for development.

Feast of Blessed Antonio Rosmini 1st July

Born at Rovereto in 1797. He accepted the call of God while still a young man. He became a Priest in 1821. He placed himself and his extraordinary physical, intellectual and moral talents at the service of God and the Church.

Pope Pius VIII in 1829 pointed out to him that God wished that "you should write books...your task is to lead people to religion by means of reason". He was faithful to this task even in difficult circumstances. Certain people urged him to found a religious Congregation.

Having received certain signs of the will of God, he began this in 1828 on Sacro Monte Calvario looking over Domodossola.

The Institute of Charity, as he called it, later simply called "Rosminians", received pontifical approval in 1839. Rosmini formed its members, and looked after its spirit, organisation and development. With loving care he also looked after that of the Rosminian Sisters of Providence. He was an esteemed master of the spiritual life; all his writings showed his genuine adherence to the Gospel and religious tradition. He died at Stresa in 1855.

There will be a Mass celebration in honour of the Founder on the 1st July at 10am, followed by refreshments.

God's Love for You

Christian Marriage (2)

Although Christian Marriage is sacred and its bond is sealed by the Sacrament, yet there is always evil and temptations to try to disturb and even break this bond of love. Jealousy, suspicion, infidelity, a spirit of domination, disparage are some of the beginnings that can lead to hatred and separation. Therefore, Christian Marriage should be built on the help of God's Grace and the faithful married love for the spouse. Since God's Grace can heal the wounds of sins, perfect the couple's love, strengthen their unity, and help them to attain holiness. The conjugal love is a totality love to their spouse, whether it is their appearance, affectivity or will. Thus it is not only a love to becoming one flesh, but even aim to forming one heart, one soul. It is also a love to embrace their entire life, whether it is their past, present or future; open to fertility, total mutual self-giving and day-to-day fidelity, in order to grow continually in their communion.

You may wonder how the Holy Family's life was like, since they are the example for us to follow. According to the Servant of God Mother Maria Cecilia Baij's personal revelation, sometimes when St Joseph worked very laboriously he would come up to his wife and humbly asked her to sing a God-praising hymn for him to relieve his tiredness. Virgin Mary would then promptly do so, and her singing was so delightful that St Joseph frequently went into ecstasy. He once commented:

"My spouse, your singing alone is enough to bring comfort to every afflicted heart! What consolation you gave me through it! What relief for my weariness! What a great joy it is for me to hear you speak or sing!" The Virgin Mary then replied: "God has poured these graces into my heart, in order that you might be comforted and obtain relief in your tribulations and afflictions."
