30th SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME (Year C)

What man can say that he is without sin? Thus Holy Scripture tells us that perfection consists in supporting each other despite faults and defects.

So a big-hearted and generous tolerance for the faults of our neighbour is both a duty and also the title we have for the right to be sympathetically regarded by others.

Finally it is the indispensable means of preserving tranquillity and peace within our hearts.

"...For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted." (Luke 18:14)

Almighty ever-living God, increase our faith, hope and charity, and make us love what you command, so that we may merit what you promise.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

ALL SAINTS' DAY

How do we celebrate the day of All the Saints? As each of us has a patron saint, either our baptismal name or a saint chosen by us such as a confirmation saint, then we can rejoice especially in thanking God for the protection of this saint. We can do more in reminding ourselves of the special spiritual gifts, or virtues of this saint. This is easy for a well known person but perhaps now is the time to look up the life of 'my saint' and learn more about them. Next we thank God for the Communion of Saints, which is the whole of God's gathering of saints in heaven where they praise God in knowing more about God and about one another. Each saint shows some holy aspect of God.

Journey in Faith

Also known as the RCIA, this is a course that will be starting on Thursday 30th October, in the parish for any who wish to consider becoming a Catholic. Some brochures are available. As a approach to this faith journey we really recommend watching the excellent free YouTube series on the life of Jesus called The Chosen. On prayer and devotion watch the free sessions of Sycamore.fm as an introduction to a life of faith. These are quality resources for any parishioner but especially those seeking to deepen their faith.

So This Thursday we warmly welcome the new members of the Journey in Faith, to the first of our series of meetings in the front room of the presbytery.

Community Cuppa!

Community Hall, Bedford Street
Wednesdays 1.30pm - 4pm Community Cuppa afternoon involves entertainment (organised by parishioners and guests), and plenty of cake and beverages.

The life of the Saints, that is, of great lovers, is interwoven with acts of adoration and contemplation which maintain them continually above all other created things. At the same time, all the powers of nature weigh these lovers down and tend to draw them away from the sublime height. They are like people torn apart by two powers, as opposite as pleasure and pain, and stronger than themselves: on the one hand, the power of supreme love which lifts them up and, on the other, the power of all those attractions, suffering and even necessities of nature which throws them down to earth.

Love for the Lord, then, is one with love for the poor. The same Jesus who tells us, "The poor you will always have with you" (Mt 26:11) also promises the disciples, "I am with you always" (Mt 28:20). We likewise think of his saying: "Just as you did it to the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did it to me" (Mt 25:40).

This is not a matter of mere human kindness but a revelation: contact with those who are lowly and powerless is a fundamental way of encountering the Lord of history.
