

Calistoga Seventh-day Adventist Church

As we view the world around us it is easy to get confused by the wars, the chaos, riots, protesters, food prices, and election antics. Where is everything going? How will it end? What is in store for each of us? We welcome Robinson Anderson back to our pulpit today with thoughts on the “Final Answer” to many of our questions. Robinson Anderson is the current acting Director of the Elmshaven Historical Home.

First Reading: Transfer of Leona Rembold to Yountville Signs SDA Church

There are many whose hearts are aching under a load of care because they seek to reach the world's standard. They have chosen its service, accepted its perplexities, adopted its customs. Thus their character is marred and their life made a weariness. The continual worry is wearing out the life forces. Our Lord desires them to lay aside this yoke of bondage. He invites them to accept His yoke; He says, "My yoke is easy, and My burden is light." Worry is blind and cannot discern the future; but Jesus sees the end from the beginning. In every difficulty He has His way prepared to bring relief. "No good thing will He withhold from them that walk uprightly." Matthew 11:30; Psalm 84:11.
