Calistoga Seventh-day Adventist Church

Presumption is believing that something is true with little or no proof that it is. We presume that someone is innocent until proved otherwise. looks outward to God and relies on Him. , on the other hand, turns inward and finds confidence and assurance in self. But is presumption always a sin or not? Today's sermon will be dealing with that question.

Let Don Christensen know if you have trouble joining through the link of the Home Page on the Calistoga Church web site, www.calistogasda.com marked "Prayer Meeting." Don's cell number is 707-483-9084.

Virgil P. Morris passed away September 4, having celebrated his 98th birthday on August 23. He was born in Modesto, California and lived much of his life in California, working as a hospital administrator in Los Gatos, South Lake Tahoe, Placerville, Hanford, Port Hueneme, and Hong Kong. Virgil was married to Dee Jacobson Morris for 67 years and to Dolly Kunza Morris for 5 years, both of whom preceded him in death.

Virgil and Dee retired to Angwin, CA, in 1988. Virgil was at different times a member of the PUC, Calistoga, and Yountville Adventist Churches where he served as chorister, deacon, and elder. He was active in the Angwin community during his retirement years as president of the ambulance company, member of the community council, participant in the St. Helena Men's Chorus, and manager of the Good News Broadcasting radio station in Deer Park.

Virgil leaves behind two daughters and their spouses-Marsha and Dwight Crow and Debi and Jeff Blevins; five grandchildren and their spouses, and five great-grandchildren along with a brother, sister-in-law, nephews and nieces.

A celebration of Virgil's life will be held the second weekend in November in Lincoln, CA. Details are pending and will be announced. Condolences to the family can be sent to Marsha Crow, 1197 Segolily Lane, Lincoln, CA. 95648 or marsha.crow@outlook.com.
